*The class of 1992 honors our friend and classmate, Chris Blake.
The following poem was sent to the Blake family at the time of his death.*

*Although we did not expect this,
It is with great sorrow—with great sadness in our hearts.*

*We accept this day,
that this is as far as you go with us.
Today, you have become something more powerful than us—a Spirit.*

*You must go now,
without sadness,
without worry.*

*But with happiness,
on a journey to our people.
You will see our people there.
Don't ask us to come with you,
but allow us to live this life out—here.*

*Don't forget us, either.
Help us with your new power.
Bless us with rain, snow, and whatever we live with,
So that we may continue our life here on this earth.*

The 1991 Homecoming was a week full of spirit. The week consisted of four dress up days: P.J. Day, Opposite Day, 70's Day, and Red and Black Day. Friday morning started off with the dedication of the Skier Statue to Katy Smith and continued with another successful Field Day. The day ended with the Pep Rally which raised the spirits of the students for the upcoming events. The spirit at the bonfire, the games, and the dance was overwhelming. Overall, the whole week was GREAT!!

This year ambition motivated the girls' volleyball team throughout the season. The varsity team went undefeated in the league, winning all their games until regionals. The head coach Bill Hoover, helped guide the team to regionals where unfortunately they lost to Olathe and Montrose. Overall, the Varsity team's record was 16 and 7. Junior Varsity and Freshmen held strong all season with the JV winning 9 and losing 4; the freshmen also won 9 and lost 4. New coach Benta Marsh served as an enthusiastic coach of the freshmen girls' team. Misty Stonehocker received the Most Valuable Player award for her hard work and positive attitude. She also was named to the All-State team. Two juniors, Anna Thompson and Ashly Harder, were awarded Honorable Mention for their hard

The golf team, with Coach Doug Rohrbaugh, had an excellent season this year with many talented players. The team itself was larger this year than it has been in previous years. The players included Eri Crum, Hess Hodge, Dustin Ross, Matt Fields, Ezra Louthis, Jeff Conarro, Louis Beck, Fitz Scott and Peter Scott. The team participated in many tournaments throughout the state. Durango, Aspen, Snowmass, Rangely, Battlement Mesa, Rifle, Craig, and Cortez all hosted events. Peter Scott won the tournament at Battlement Mesa, and Ezra Louthis tied for first at Snowmass with a score of 79. After an excellent qualifying round, Fitz Scott played in the State Tournament and shot a two round total of 169. With the experience gained this year and large number of returning players, 1992 looks bright for the Aspen Golf Team.

The Boys are ready for their race at Districts.

The Aspen cross country team, coached by Mark Barbour, Chris Keleher, and Janie Vanschooneveld, had a very successful year. The injuries were minimal, and the team ran many strong races. The boys' team qualified for the State Championship Meet in Pueblo by posting a third place team finish at the District Meet in Montrose. At the State Championships, the team finished fourteenth place in the 1A-4A division. Aspen posted two top ten finishers. Zeke Tiernan was third, and Chris Severy finished ninth out of a large field of runners. The boys' team was made up of several very determined runners including Par Gustafsson (a Swedish exchange student), Zeke Tiernan, Chris Severy, Casey Ward, and Anders Gustafson. The girls' team, which consisted of Camia Young, Abby Batchelder, Hayley Hodgson, Laura Mace, Ananya Mullane, Molly Haberman, Rachel Vance, and Courtney Kuntze, also ran very well this year. They had an impressive race at districts. Camia Young led the girls' team with a powerful twenty-sixth place finish. Everybody who participated in cross country worked hard and ran well.

WHO ARE WE? . . . ASPEN!

Back row: Jeff Conarroe, James Lindt, Ari Chaney, Travis Benson, Chris Daniel, and Chris Moffroid. Second row: Coach Stuart Moss, Travis High, Aaron Anderson, Derreck Hunt, Mike Fleisher, Bill Blatty, and Coach Jim Canon. Third row: Coach Bill Slater, Joe Sae Jiw, Chris Moore, Hector Gutierrez, Alec Parker, Dan Dangler, David Lyons, Colin Dunlop, Matt Fields, John Mayle, and Head Coach Mario Daniele. Front row: Jason Hegberg, Noah Moss, Travis Fisher, Mark Cornish, Colin Smiddy, Matt Budreau, Tim Moffroid, and Coach Dave Briscoe.

The 1991 football team led by head coach, Mario Daniele, showed outstanding effort and hard work. This year's team was one of the better teams that Aspen has had. With a record of 2-7 for the season, Aspen achieved a goal that's been in the making for two years and won two home games in a row against Palisade and Sorocco. With a strong set of seniors to lead the Skiers, Aspen was equipped with a good attitude and high spirit. Coming off the season, almost all of Aspen's seniors were recognized for their outstanding performance. Colin Smiddy, who made All-League for wide receiver, was the 4th best receiver in the state for the 3A division. Matt Budreau and Alec Parker both received honorable mention for All-League. Matt Budreau also won his team's nomination as Most Valuable Player. Coaches selected Noah Moss as the Hardest Running Back, Alec Parker as the Top Lineman, and Travis Fisher as the Most Improved Player. With many strong, hard playing returning team members, the future for the Skiers looks good.

Cheerleaders

Cheerleading this year was completely different from any other year. Under the leadership of the cheerleaders, school spirit reached its peak. The cheerleaders planned activities for each day and ended the week with a lively pep assembly. The squad for this year was made up of thirteen girls representing grades 9 through 12. In addition to encouraging school spirit and cheering at games, the squad entered competitions. Coaches Beth Newton and Elizabeth Kopalousos led the cheerleaders to a victorious season. They placed fourth in regionals and won a place in the National Cheerleaders Competition in Florida.

The Aspen Skiers once again enjoyed having a very young soccer team this year. Both coaches and players agree that the future is bright for these marvelous players who finished their season with a record of 1 win, 8 losses, and 6 ties.

The skiers were led by seniors Nicky Parsons, Stoffer Beck, Nate Kolbe, Colin

Marshall, Mark Meleg, Markku Salin, Erik Johnson, David Martin, and Erik Hillmuth. Head Coach Brad Jordan said, "The older players had a great influence on the younger players and it will pay off for seasons to come."

The skiers received tremendous help from several experienced coaches. Brad Jordan was head coach, Carl Uyehara coached the goalies, and Brian Barnes was the defensive coach. With this talent and experience teaching our young players, we can be sure of a successful 1992 team. "Just wait till next year" says Coach Jordan.

Avalanche Takes State!

The Aspen Avalanche hockey team's hard work and outstanding performance brought them to first in the state this year. In double overtime the Aspen Avalanche defeated Fort Collins 4-3. They had an exciting victory against Team Colorado All Stars who have only been beaten twice in two years. Aspen was one of the two teams successful in their overthrow.

Cross Country Skiing

Anna Auster, Molly Haberman, Casey Ward, and Camia Young

This year's Aspen High School cross country team has been coached by Raoul Wille, a twelve-year veteran. Members of the team may be chosen to participate in the 1992 Junior Olympics, which will be held in Rumford, Maine. To qualify for the Junior Olympics they must race in four of the six set events. Personal times from the Junior Olympic meets are averaged, and the best times go to the Junior Olympics. In a recent Junior Olympics competition, Casey Ward finished first, Anna Auster finished third, and Chamisa Lamm finished fourth.

Downhill Ski Team

Francis, Todd Potvin, Chris Potvin, Nate Kolbe, Matt Coordes, James Casanova, Kent Anderson, Tyler Richardson and Aaron Siegel — participated and excelled in various races held at ski resorts throughout Colorado and New Mexico. Each team member was able to compete at his or her peak for most of the season. The year ended for the exceptionally skilled racers at the regional Junior Olympics. All in all, the downhill team represented Aspen High School and our town's skiing reputation well, setting a high standard for future Aspen racers.

The Skiers girls' basketball team ended the 1991-92 regular season with a record of 8 wins and 10 losses. With a positive winning attitude, a key factor to their strong season, the Skiers exhibited great defense and strong offense. Head Coach Mick Bennett said he was "encouraged by the great defense the girls played." The Skiers will be suffering the loss of three valuable seniors, Brooke Bagley, Brittany Harder and Hilary Hendricks. Although the Skiers are suffering that important loss, they still have a positive outlook for a successful future.

The Skiers had quite a few spectacular wins this season, starting with their success as Basalt Tournament champions, and continuing with their defeat over Eagle Valley, 100 to 41. During that game, junior Terri Dangler set a new state record for single scoring with 46 points. Terri Dangler was named All League, and senior Brooke Bagley received All League Honorable Mention.

After tying for fifth in the league with Roaring Fork, the Skiers were headed to the district playoffs against Eagle, Steamboat and Battle Mountain. Coach Mick Bennett, very pleased with the season, said "given the youth of our Skier team, I think we did very well and came a very long way."

Coach Kirk Gregory led the Aspen Varsity team to an impressive 11-8 record this year. While the players functioned well as a team, several of them established outstanding statistics. Michael Lund averaged 23 points a game along with 7 rebounds, and Alec Parker contributed an average of 10 points and 13 rebounds. Dan Arellano contributed many three pointers. Matt Budreau, Noah Moss, Jason Hegberg, Colin Smiddy, Dan Dangler, Jason Hutts and Travis Fisher contributed many important baskets and rebounds.

To be eligible for National Honor Society, students must maintain a 3.5 grade point average, be nominated and selected by the faculty, and be recognized as a community service leader. NHS's primary function is to help the school and community. This year the group helped the Youth Center put on their grand opening dance on Halloween, collected clothes for the poor, and made tutors available to students who needed extra help. NHS plans to make money to pay for a scholarship going to an outstanding leader at Aspen High.

Student Senate

Nattana Young, treasurer; Ashraf Khalaf, president; Hilary Hendricks, vice president; Marjorie Luks, secretary.

Student Senate got off with a bang this school year. At the beginning of the year, Student Senate was in charge of organizing Homecoming. With the help of the cheerleaders, the week was quite a success. Student Senate has been involved with many community activities. At Thanksgiving, Student Senate cooperated on a food drive with the Youth Center. Then came Christmas with another food drive. Both were very successful and helped many people throughout the community. Student Senate allows for the people of our school to have a voice in what happens. With the advice from Mike Christopher, Student Senate was able to make A.H.S. a more enjoyable place for everyone.

MAD Company

Students in MAD company, a performing group, are chosen through the process of audition. MAD is composed of some of the most talented vocalists in the school. The group also consists of a 12 member back up band and many technical assistants. This year the group traveled to Florida and the Bahamas for their tour. The group's dedication and overwhelming care for each other makes them a very successful group.

Jazz Band

This year's Jazz Band has had an active performance schedule. They tuned their horns for the Senior Citizen and Aspen Historical Society concerts as well as the Jerome welcome party. As usual, they performed in the Winterskol parade for Aspen. For the Jazz Band's first year as a performing band, they have been showing strong development. Bill Klutchko's plans are to double or triple the band's size in the upcoming years. The outstanding qualities that make this group of kids so successful is their sense of humor and their ability to help each other out. Bill Klutchko's positive energy adds to the group. He sums them up as "A HOT GROUP!"

FBLA/DECA

Future Business Leaders of America and Distributive Education Clubs of America are national organizations composed of business students at the high school level. The main goal of FBLA and DECA is to develop business skills and to establish the confidence that the students need. They learn how to achieve their goals in classroom activities as well as in district, state, and national competitions.

VICA

One of the purposes of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America is to develop individuals who are interested in gaining knowledge and skills about the automotive industry. In this club they work on daily transportation vehicles and do repairs for students, teachers, and other community members. All work is done in the auto shop. Students attend district and state conferences where they compete with other schools.

VICA is organized by Ken Larson and John Fisher. Included in VICA are students from the cabinetmaking class and the professional auto class.

Knowledge Bowl

Knowledge Bowl is a group of students willing to use their minds and intellect in competition. They need to be sharp and aggressive in order to place higher than the many other teams participating. In the Delta Invitational the Varsity team placed 3rd and the Junior Varsity took 11th. Throughout the year, they have shown that they can accomplish goals and work well as a group.

Speech And Debate

Speaking in front of people is something students will use all their lives. Declamations, the speech and debate club, has events for everybody; creative storytelling, duet acting, poetry, dramatic interpretations, impromptu speaking, solo speaking, original oratory, humor, and debate. This year the team included a variety of people who won many excellent and superior awards. They have successfully worked their way to state for the tenth year in a row. The team has worked hard to reach their goals, but the coaches are still working on their goal, to get the team back up to forty-two people as in the year of 1982.

Peer Support

The Peer Support program allows students a one-year course (one semester training, one semester field work) in which they are taught ways to reach out to their peers. This program begins with a three day outward bound experience in which the Peer Supporters learn team building skills and how to work with each other. During the rest of the semester, taught by Karen Smith, the program coordinator, the students learn various skills in helping their peers in their every day high school dilemmas such as relationships, stress, drugs, and many others. The Peer Supporters learn the skills to help themselves, as well as others in their futures.

Literary Magazine/Skier Star

The Literary Magazine is a published selection of students' literary, art, and photo submissions from all schools in Aspen School District. The staff is involved in publicity, solicitation of entries, selection of entries, layout, and sale of the magazine. Under the leadership of sponsor Stacy Mandel and editor Alder Yarrow, the staff provides students of all ages with the opportunity to express their creativity and artistic ability.

The Skier Star, sponsored by George Burson, has been a very big success among the students and the student writers. The students who write for the paper create most of the ideas for the articles themselves. The Skier Star is published three times a year: October, January, and May. The Aspen Daily News sells ads for the Skier Star. Half of the funds go to the High School Journalism Fund, a scholarship fund for graduating seniors. Scholarships of about $1,000 are awarded to selected students every year. Five students have received a combined total of $4,000 since 1989 when the first issue came out. The Skier Star is helpful in informing students and community members up and down the Roaring Fork Valley.

Drama

The Drama Department along with the Aspen High School put on the production "Voices from the High School," directed by Tyler Miller. Tyler along with her drama students worked to create a comfortable class environment. In class the students practiced many exercises to increase their speaking and acting abilities through exercises such as name-and-bow, fade-in/fade-out, and the machine. Tyler's hope for the class was to help the students not only connect with their inner feelings but also the feelings of others.

E.A.R.T.H. (Environmental Activists Reaching Towards Harmony) is a group of kids designed to help and care for the environment. During the past year, the E.A.R.T.H. group was actively involved in the national SEAC (Student Environmental Activists Coalition) conference and the International Windstar Symposium. Each E.A.R.T.H. member participates in individual interest groups such as the rain forest, recycling, composting, education, the bulletin board, and the C.H.O.W.E. (Citizens Helping Our World Environment) campaign. Each group has a mentor who supports and organizes the students to form a more structured group. The E.A.R.T.H. group, school, and community were greatly inspired by the intense presentation about the old forests of the Pacific Northwest by Lou Gold.

Although this year's baseball season record was 2-13, the team enjoyed their season. "I really enjoyed the season this year even though it was not successful from a win/loss point of view. It was successful because both the coach and the players enjoyed what they were doing; everybody participated and learned more about themselves and baseball. With so many young players out, I'm really looking forward to the future years in Aspen sports," said Coach Jeff Yusem. This year Colin Smiddy, Colin Dunlop, and Matt Budreau were chosen to go to Russia during the summer to teach and play baseball with Coach Jeff Yusem. This young team can look forward to future success.

TOP EIGHT IN THE STATE!

Seniors: Paula Godfrey, Kira Brendlinger, Marjorie Lucks, and Hilary Hendricks.

Soccer performed outstandingly this year. The team finished 7-1 in league and 12-4-1 at the end of the season. The season ended with a strong showing against one of the toughest teams in the state in the quarterfinals. The team's MVP and one of the best goalkeepers in the league, junior Terri Dangler, managed 7 shut outs this year. Sophomore Jennifer Worcester finished the season with 29 goals, the highest number in the league. Terri and Jennifer didn't do it by themselves, though. Without the help of a strong defense, skilled midfield, and an aggressive forward line, the team would not have gone into the second round of the state playoffs.

With the help of Assistant Coach Beth McCarthy, there was a JV Team for the first year. The successful year for the JV Team gives the future a lot of promise. The team is losing only four seniors: Paula Godfrey, Kira Brendlinger, Hilary Hendricks, and Marjorie Lucks. Although these players are very valuable, the loss of only four players gives the team high hopes for the future.

Run, Jump, and Throw

Gina Yoder running a strong 200 meter dash.

The Aspen Track Team, coached by Carol Sams, Mark Barbour, Jim Fleisher, Brad Ellington and Chris Keleher, enjoyed a successful season this year. A large number of participants took part in this sport. Each of these dedicated and adept athletes participated in track meets throughout the state. The highlight of the season came at the district meet in Grand Junction where Zeke Tiernan, Chris Severy, Catie Vagneur, and a 3200 meter relay team consisting of Severy, Par Gustafsson, Mike Fleisher, and Tiernan qualified for the State 3A Track Meet held in Fountain, Colorado. Zeke Tiernan finished the season with an impressive first place finish in the 3200 meter run at the state meet, breaking the 3A Colorado state record with a time of 9:54. Chris Severy, who also participated in the 3200, ran a strong race finishing third in the state, and Catie Vagneur received fourth place in the high jump with an impressive leap of 5'2.5". All in all, the Aspen Track Team proved to be very strong and successful.

ASPEN HIGH TENNIS

Aspen High School's first tennis team, coached by Sue Geist, had a good start-off season. Rachel Levy was first seed player, Molly Schroeder was second seed, and Ashley Harder was third seed in the singles game playing. Ashley Harder went on to State in singles. Nikki Francis and Abby Batchelder had a 5-1 record for doubles. Says Coach Geist, "One advantage is that we had no seniors on the team this year. Hopefully all the girls will be back next year, and they will be much stronger and better with this experience under their belts."

Yearbook provides the students with an opportunity to work together to improve their writing, organization, and photographic skills. The students work the full year to create a book of which they can be proud. Because yearbook is an extra curricular activity as well as a class, editors Ananya Mullane and Laura Mace put in extra time with the other students before and after school to make sure the yearbook is the best it can be. Yearbook students learn patience and persistence while they work on the yearbook.
