The 1993 fall Cheerleading squad brought spirit and pep home to Aspen High School. "It was a great season! I feel like spirit was built and a change of attitude was achieved!" exclaimed Co-captain Britta Gustafson. Highlights of the season were the Homecoming pep-rally and all the school spirit. Coach Monica Hingst decided that the most memorable event had to be the Meeker football game in a temperature of 15 degrees. "They moved more than they ever moved before," she admitted.

The season ended with the cheerleaders going to state with the volleyball team.

Four cheerleaders, Tara High, Britta Gustafson, Kristin Ingram and Whitney Mizel, had the opportunity to cheer at a Nuggets game in Denver. "I feel like my cheerleaders gained the respect they deserved by hard work and dedication," declared Coach Hingst.

Senior Phillip Palousek rushes in to tackle an Eagle Valley opponent.

On the first day of Aspen High School's football practice, only 14 participants showed up. What would this indicate for the future of the team? But, on the day of the final game of the season, these men were still there, ready and willing. It was inspiring to watch a team struggle through a whole season with so few players. Although the season's record was 0-8, the pride and courage of the Skiers made them winners to us. These players were there through good times and bad, taking the field as true Ironmen.

We all can agree with assistant coach Jim Fleisher that this group was super! "This was the toughest group of guys I have ever worked with."

Just the fact that these men had the courage and willingness to join the team was a highlight of the season. A hope for next year is that there will be men as strong as these that will go out for the team. Thanks to Head Coach Tim Harp, Assistant Coaches Jim Fleisher, Kevin Brown, Troy Jenson, and all the others who helped make this team so successful.

THE TRADITION CONTINUES... AHS VOLLEYBALL GOES TO STATE

The players' hard work and competitiveness resulted in an excellent season. This season's record was 19-9. Everyone worked as a team and supported each other. Junior Claire Muth set the state record for serves (141 consecutives with no errors). Senior Molly Schroeder, the team's leader and captain, kept the team going. All the players contributed in making this team successful. Going to state was a great accomplishment and experience for the team.

THE BEST TEAM IN AHS BOYS' SOCCER HISTORY!

This year's boys' soccer team performed extremely well. For the first time ever in the history of Aspen High School, the team qualified for state. Although the team lost in the quarterfinal of the state championship with a shoot out, the season was very successful. The captains of the team were Senior Chad Bleiler and Junior Dave Lindberg. Julio Guio, an exchange student from Spain, was outstanding as he led the team in goals and was awarded an all-league standing by the High Country League. Aspen High School is looking for just as successful a season next year.

GOLF DOES IT AGAIN!

The 1993 Aspen High School Golf Team had another very successful year. The season had many high points, one of which was finishing second out of 18 teams in regionals. The most memorable aspect was going as a team to the 6A state play-offs for the second consecutive year. Jeff Conarro exclaimed, "It was a good year and we came together as a team at the right time!" Senior Eri Crum was consistently one of the top golfers in the region and achieved all-state status.

CROSS COUNTRY: THE TRADITION CONTINUES

1993 was a successful year for the cross country team. The girls finished first in the district championship and third in the state championship. The boys finished second in the district championship and sixth in the state championship. In individual achievement, Junior Kate

Russell finished first in districts, Senior Casey Ward third, and Senior Chris Severy finished first in the district championship and in the state championship. Coach Mark Barbour was assisted by Chris Keleher, an AHS alumni. Barbour complimented his runners:

"Both teams did extremely well, better than I was thinking. I am proud of all the runners for all they have done." For next year, Barbour expects the girls to place in the top two teams of the state and the boys in the top five teams.

Robin Severy and Kate Russell hand off to Casey Ward and Chris Severy for the second leg of the relay.

GO, FIGHT, WIN! 1994 WINTER CHEERLEADING

Back row: Whitney Mizel, Tara Beth High, Britta Gustafson, Jessica Bowden and Noel Cayo.

Seniors: Co-captain Tara Beth High, Captain Bessie Harper and Co-captain Noel Cayo.

The 1994 Winter Cheerleaders had a great season. The squad cheered at every home game and many away games, including the girls district tournament in Grand Junction. During the winter season the cheerleaders managed to build stunts that were thought to be impossible for them to accomplish. The winter season ended with a big bang at the last home game where the cheerleaders danced to an Elvis medley taught to them by Noel Cayo. Coach Monica Hingst claimed, "We had very good dancers on the squad, and we were great builders." "The Winter Cheerleading squad was a step in the right direction." said Co-captain Tara Beth High.

ASPEN AVALANCHE

The Aspen Avalanche hockey team had a strong showing this year despite losing 11 seniors. The hockey team ended the year with an overall record of 8-13-3. The Avalanche played in one tournament and next year they have been invited to play in Germany where they will play teams from Switzerland, France, Czechoslovakia, and Germany.

The 1994 Aspen High School Cross Country Ski Team coached by Skip Hamilton, has had an extremely successful season. This year's team consisted of Molly Haberman, Casey Ward, Nicole Kolb, Ryan Kiernan, Pia Naef, and Anna Auster, who assisted the coach. As this book went to press, it looked as though some of our skiers would be qualifying for the Junior Olympics.

The downhill ski team coached by P.D. Ash, Mark Tache, Hugues Morand, John McBride, and Robin Caudill, represented Aspen well. Participating in the Rocky Mountain Division, one of the most competitive in the United States, the Aspen team raced in the downhill, super G, giant slalom, and the slalom. They competed in the state of Colorado, except for the Junior Olympics at Sugarloaf, Maine, and other big races.

CINDERELLA TEAM GOES TO REGIONALS

As Jennifer Worcester shoots the Skiers get ready to rebound.

Beating rival Roaring Fork in the district tournament and beating Olathe to take 2nd gave the Skiers a 10-14 record. The Skiers lost to Denver Christian in the regional playoffs. This year the Skiers were an inexperienced team with many young players. Head Coach Mick Bennett said, "It was gratifying to see the constant improvement as the season went on. Not only did we improve to the point where we finished 2nd in our district, we were also left with a strong group of returning players to assure equally good teams in the future."

Varsity Skiers Seniors. Tate Fischer, Molly Schroeder, Jennifer Worcester, Hillary Trish and Kelsey Orcutt.

GO BIG RED! AHS BOYS' BASKETBALL

The Aspen Skiers' Boys' Varsity Basketball Team improved greatly throughout the season. They were a young team with no seniors, and even though their record ended 2-18, Head Coach Dave Conarro feels, "They have strong potential for next season." Jeff Conarro was selected All-Conference and David Lindberg received All-Conference Honorable Mention. David Lindberg was also the team's leading scorer with a 14.8 average. Travis Benson led rebounding with an average of 7 rebounds a game. Jeff Conarro also scored 37 points against Olathe, placing him fourth among top single scorers in Aspen High's record. Dave Conarro feels the Skiers will go into next year's season with great experience and expect to do better than this season. The assistant coaches Jeff Storm and Charles Wells were extremely helpful this season.

Student Community Coalition, an organization open to all Aspen High School students, accomplished a lot for the student body. They invited speakers who talked about their successes. They elected the "Student of the Week" and kept students informed of all the events concerning the school (sports, meetings, yearbook sales, etc.) every Thursday, through Voices. SCC not only made achievements for the school, but they also helped the community. This year they organized a food drive and all the food collected was given to the Presbyterian Church to be distributed. At Christmas, they gave every student a commemorative pin from Aspen High School. SCC was able to make AHS a more enjoyable place for everyone.

The purpose of the Foreign Language Club is to provide opportunities to experience different languages and cultures outside of the classroom. This year, four of the exchange students (Pia Naef, Kanako Miyazaki, Tobias Bollig, Stephanie Blanc) actively participated in the Club, sharing their various cultures with Aspen High School students. Activities included dinners, featuring the cuisine and traditions of different countries. "It was a great occasion to meet people and share our different cultures" Stephanie said.

STUDENT SENATE

Assisted by the cheerleaders, they planned successful Homecoming Weeks, both in the Fall and the Winter. In addition, they raised money for the Ryan Lynch Memorial Foundation by organizing Charity Ski Day in January. They also awarded a scholarship for a 1994 graduated student. With all those achievements, they contributed to the charm of Aspen High School.

President Hillary Trish and Vice-president Bessie Harper.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

To be eligible for National Honor Society, students must maintain an 87% grade average. NHS' initial role is to help the school and also the community. This year, they had a productive fall. They planned a day to clean up the campus before the first snow. By coincidence, this day corresponded with the first day of snow! Before Christmas, they also organized a clothing drive, and the clothes collected were distributed to people in the valley. In addition, they worked with the Senior Citizen Center. NHS' plans also included fund raising, in collaboration with Student Senate, to pay for a scholarship for an Aspen High graduate.

The students in MAD Company are chosen through the process of audition. MAD is composed of some of the most talented vocalists in the Aspen High School. The group also consists of a four-member backup band and many technical assistants. This year the group performed at the Ritz Hotel with John Denver and travelled to California for their big tour.

DECA

DECA (Distributed Education Clubs of America) is a national organization composed of marketing students at the high school level. The main goal of DECA is to develop marketing skills and to establish the confidence that the students need. They learn how to achieve their goals in classroom activities as well as in district, state, and national competition. DECA students qualified for the state competition in Colorado Springs.

Andrea Stern, Anna Kate Denver and Kate Russell placed second at the State DECA competition.

VICA

Anthony Todaro, Binnie Holloway, Rob Cooper and Mr. Larson check out Anthony's van.

One of the purposes of the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America is to develop individuals who are interested in gaining knowledge and skills about the automotive industry. In this club members work on daily transportation vehicles and do repairs for students, teachers and other community members. All work is done in the autoshop. Students attend district and state conferences where they compete with other schools.

VICA is directed by Ken Larson. Included in VICA are the students from the professional auto class.

E.A.R.T.H.

RECYCLE!!!

E.A.R.T.H. (Environmental Activists Reaching Towards Harmony) is a group of students who give their time and effort to help the world's problems. The E.A.R.T.H. group has completed a number of projects. The group has planted trees on Independence Pass. The group has made a woodland scene for the Middle school. The main project of the E.A.R.T.H. group is to recycle in the Aspen High School. E.A.R.T.H. is available to all Aspen students.

Leeza Monge takes care of the daily recycling.

PEER SUPPORT

Ken Digney, Heather Merritt, Sacha Lamm, David Marcus, Hillary Trish, Ann Marie Anderson, Annie Greengrass, Jenny Patterson, Stephanie Drake, Laurie Peterson, Danielle Hillwig, Renee West, Nicole Jones, Becki Braun, Alix Anderson, Fred Sherrill, Michelle Weaver, Tara High, Erin Hillman, Tate Fisher.

Peer Support is a non-profit organization based in the high school. The purpose of Peer Support is to train students to become peer counselors so that they may provide fellow students with support.

The program consists of a training course and a field placement course. In the training course students develop counseling skills and explore individuality. In the field placement course, students are assigned to various community services to practice their newly learned skills. Director Fred Sherrill feels that the class is important because it promotes physical, emotional, social, and intellectual wellness.

DRAMA PRESENTS: The Truth About Cinderella

This year's Aspen High School Spring play was a musical comedy entitled The Truth About Cinderella, directed by Tammie L. Dauson. Tammie, along with her drama students, worked very hard to make this production a success. They performed at the Aspen District Theater on March 11 and 12.
