Seniors Stars of the Show!

AtS Daily News raves:

"This truly is one of the most outstanding classes to ever go through this high school!"

In the company of lifelong friends, this irresistible class of enthusiastic and unforgettable kids must venture through their last year at Aspen High School while tackling numerous obstacles. They struggle through the last phases of standardized testing, grueling college applications during Klug meetings, and final IB exams while suffering from senioritis. Although these times were often stressful and tedious, they were accompanied by bittersweet moments of their final experiences in high school. Triumphantly, they prevail and make it to their final days of senior glory. This group of young talents fly through the hearts of many and leave their mark of spirit and class on everyone who cross their path. "This classic tale captures how it feels to be caught between childhood's innocence and adulthood's disillusionment."

Most Likely To...

The Academy Awards

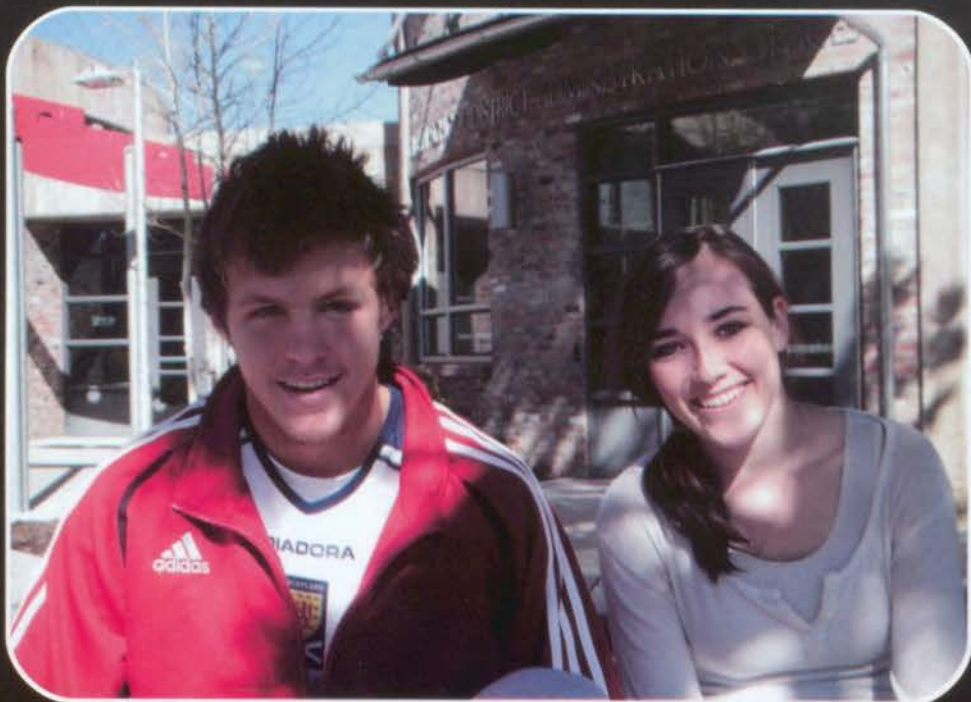

Most Intellectual

...graduate college, start their own company and invent the new "it" product before they're 21. Ashley Fish and Matt Beirne will definitely succeed in life.

Most Secretly Admired

...find secret love notes in their lockers. Stephen Buzbee and Alicia Leto have their own fan clubs.

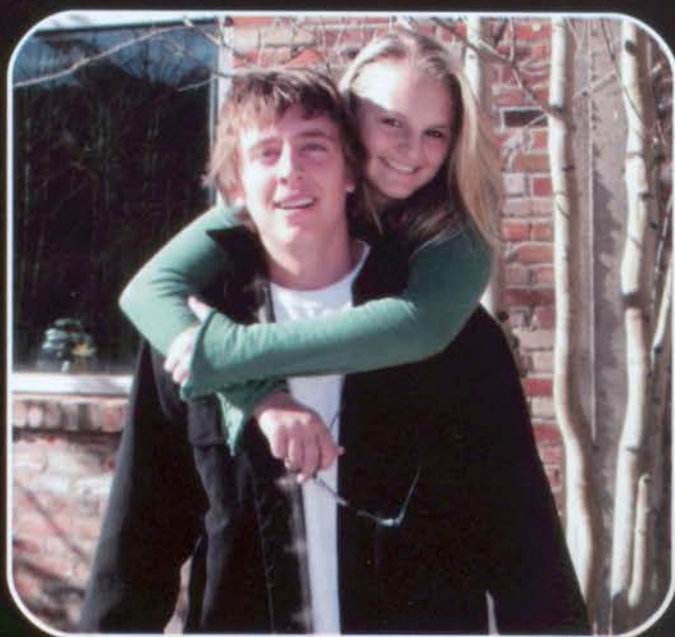

Best Smile

...star in a toothpaste commercial. Nicky Anastas and Elle Stark will brighten your day with a smile.

Most Flirtatious

...to not go home on a Friday night. Matt Cooper and Megan Raczak's phones are jammed packed with numbers.

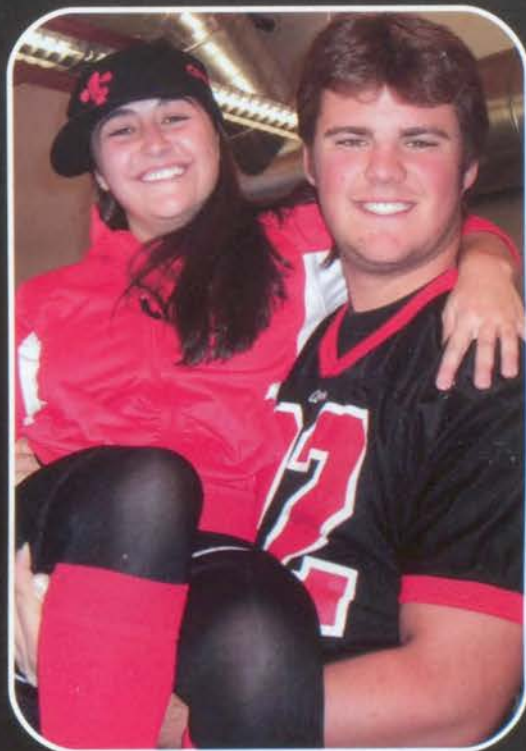

Ski Bums

...be on the slopes every weekend. Jacqui Edgerly and Sam Ferguson see a lifetime of skiing ahead of them.

Most Spirited

...attend every game wearing red and black. Page Cottrell and David Clark always lead the cheers.

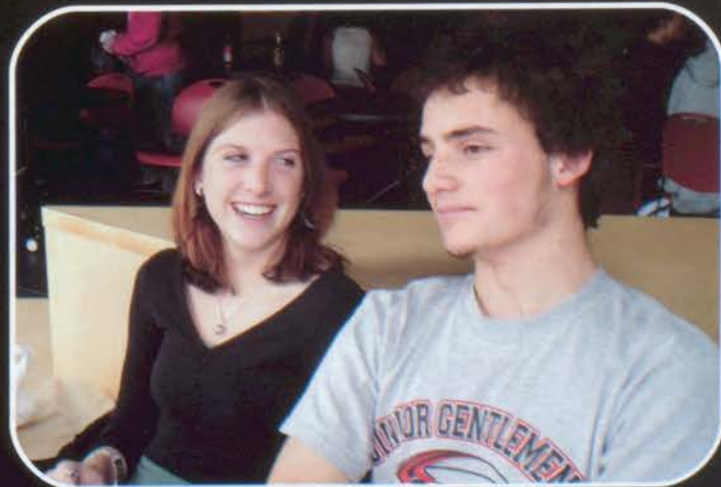

Most Musical

...challenge Mozart. Andy MacCracken and Lauren Lacy have an array of musical talents.

Best Laugh

...spread their contagious laughter. Lexi Paparo and Trevan Flynn make people smile with their giggles.

Most Individual

...never go into Abercrombie & Fitch. Isabelle Delise and Colin Bashant stand out among the crowd.

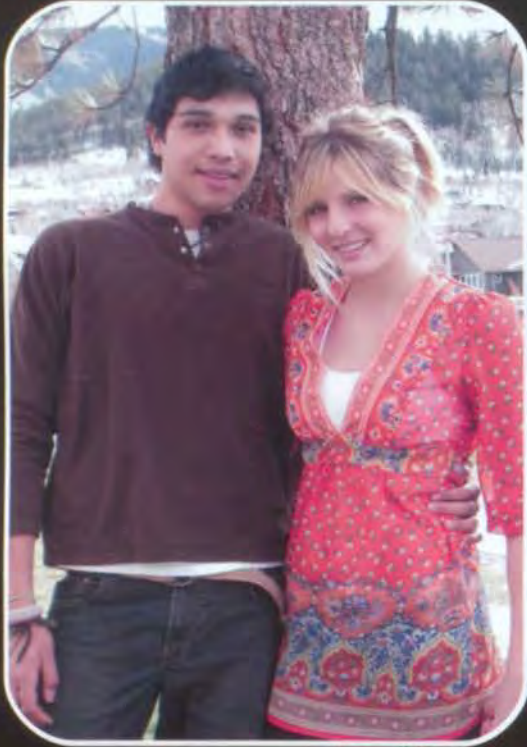

Most Childish

...to never grow up. Scott Clancy and Julianne Davis plan on moving to Never Never Land.

Best Dressed

...star in a fashion show. Joel Parada and Taylor Buzbee are always up on the latest trends.

Most Outgoing

...strike up a conversation with a stranger. Zac Giammarrusco and Jenny Hearn have no problem opening up to other people.

Most Artistic

...become the next Picasso. Hannah Gilmore and Loren Lujan are gifted in the arts.

Worst Drivers

...crash their car. Take extra caution when Brittany Zanin and Bo Weinglass are on the road.

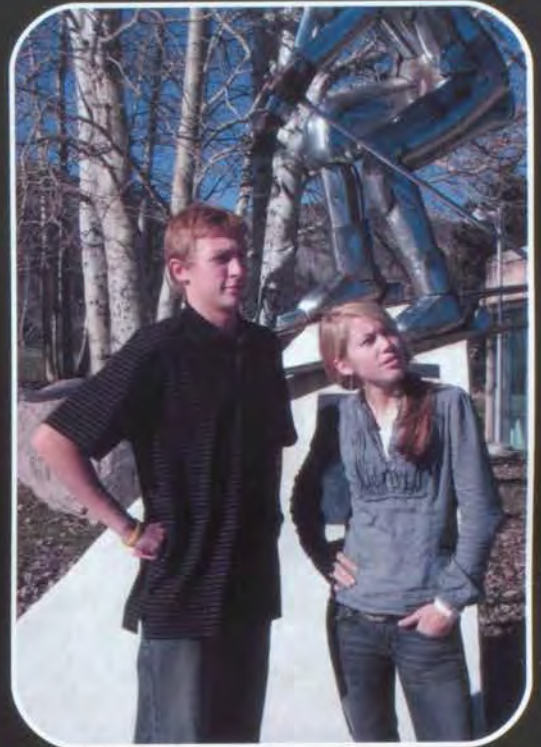

Best Blonde

...be the punchline of a blonde joke. Ryder Fyrwald and Kyla Walter's luscious blonde locks are the envy of all their friends.

Best Sense of Humor

...make you pee your pants. There's never a dull moment when Eric Sciarrone and Haylen Gregory are around.

Friendliest

...say "Hi" to you in the hallways. Skye Weinglass and Esau Rodriguez walk around with smiles on their faces.

Most Environmental

...save the world. As Aspen's biggest tree huggers, Traci Clapper and Robert Oppenheimer will always protect our earth.

Most Athletic

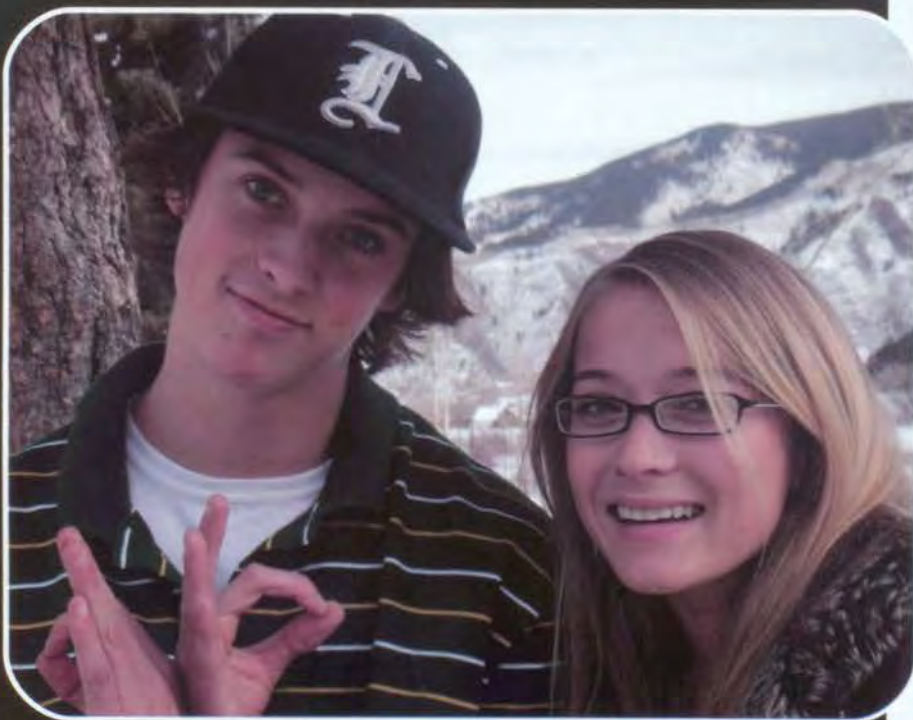

...win an Olympic medal. Noah Hoffman and Jordan Karlinski see only gold in their futures. (Courtesy of Aspen Times)

Best Parental Instincts

...always have orange slices at their kid's soccer games. Ryan Waldron and Taylor Schlepp will win the "Parent of the Year" award.

Class Clown

...disrupt the daily lesson so everyone can have a good laugh. Rory Suma is always the life of the classroom.

Best Eyes

...to never get color contacts. You could get lost by just looking into the eyes of Bo Gallagher and Elsa Larson.

Most Theatrical

...star in a Broadway Musical. You will be sure to see Bryan Harper and Cynthia Whitman at the Tony Awards.

Best Hair

...be in a "Herbal Essence" commercial. Every senior is jealous of Ryan Chaloupka and Stella Doble's stylin' locks.

Forget Us Not...

"I can hear us laughing, I remember every part. I've got everything we ever did, it's tatoood on my heart. There's a cold wind coming in, it's blowing us apart, but til the sun brings us back, know you've got a piece of my heart."

Senior Memories

"Remember this....?"

"Remember the sweet doors we made for Bobbi's class in 3rd and 4th grade?!"

-Peter Popinchalk

"Remember when a certain couple of kids got the bus pulled over on sixth grade ODE for throwing M&M's out the window?"

-Dillon Morehead

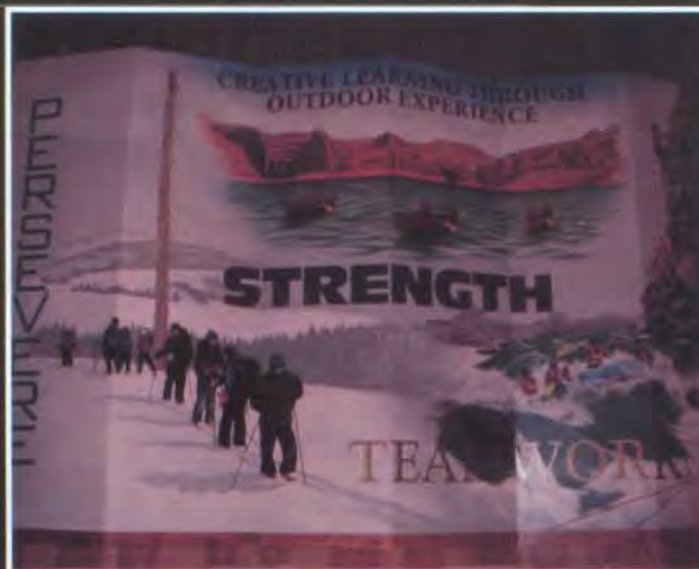

"Remember when Esau stapled his finger in Carolyn Fields' first grade class?"

-Sherry Wang

"Remember when Jordan put stink bombs in the vents at the middle school?"

-Reid Whitney

Leaving our mark. Our 8th grade class gift to the middle school was a mural of the ODE experiences and adventures. It will last forever along with our memories of Outdoor Education.

Can you remember who these old teachers are?

Elementary School Memories:

- * Lunch money stamps
- * Kissy Killers and Cooties
- * Rubber Cement
- * Teather ball
- * Sherwood Forest and Acorns
- * Conflict Managers
- * Baby chicks
- * ACES and Environmental Ed
- * Sock-Hop
- * Manners table
- * Lines...everywhere
- * Gas Leak
- * Wooden boat in Library
- * Chocolate Milk Day
- * Big Yellow Spider

Middle School Memories:

- * 6th grade plays- Alice in Wonderland, Vail's Vial Vile, Sis Boom Ba
- * Mash, Zap, Lao, Pen15 Club
- * Baby G watches
- * Furbies
- * Spin the Bottle
- * Lake Powell, Hut trips, rafting and 8th grade solo
- * Industrial Arts
- * Crazy Hair Day
- * FAILED graduation party
- * September 11, 2001
- * Mademoiselle Cord
- * Trench warfare in Brian Hightower's class

Konnichiwa! Japan, Argentina or France? Do you remember our 8th grade Sister City Exchange trips? The Aspen kids visit a school in Shimmukappu, Japan.

We remember...our good friend Shea Daily who died tragically in Glenwood Canyon our kindergarten year. We will never forget.

Superman to the Rescue!
A young Whit Fuller soars across his living room floor to eat up the rest of his Spaghetti O's.

Remember when... we spent our 4th grade year smearing manure on the walls of this building and then never got to actually use it?!

Who are they?
Do you know who these goofy looking kids are? Who knew that Eric Angus, Ryan Chaloupka, Dillon Morehead, and Loren Lujan used to be so cute?

Bet you don't know who this is!
Believe it or not, that little baldie is none other than our very own... Barton Tofany!

- Answers to teachers:
1. Kindergarten teacher Mary Owens
 2. Third grade teacher Donna Ward

Student to Teacher

"You know what teacher you remind me of..."

"Chris Wheatley reminds me of myself because we have the same goofy personality."
-Khyle McCann

"Definitely Jean Carey. We both have a dry sense of humor."
-Muckie Erickson

"My son Peter. We experienced high school in a similar way because I also had my father as a teacher."
- Mr. Popinchalk

"Someone said I'm like Caroline Hanson because both of us are always smiling."
-Courtney Dunn

Ms. Sweetness
Sweet and caring and maybe a little bit spacey, Alayne Kane and Nancy Fehrmann hang out together on Cloud Nine.

"My daughter Haylen because we have similar hair." -Kirk Gregory

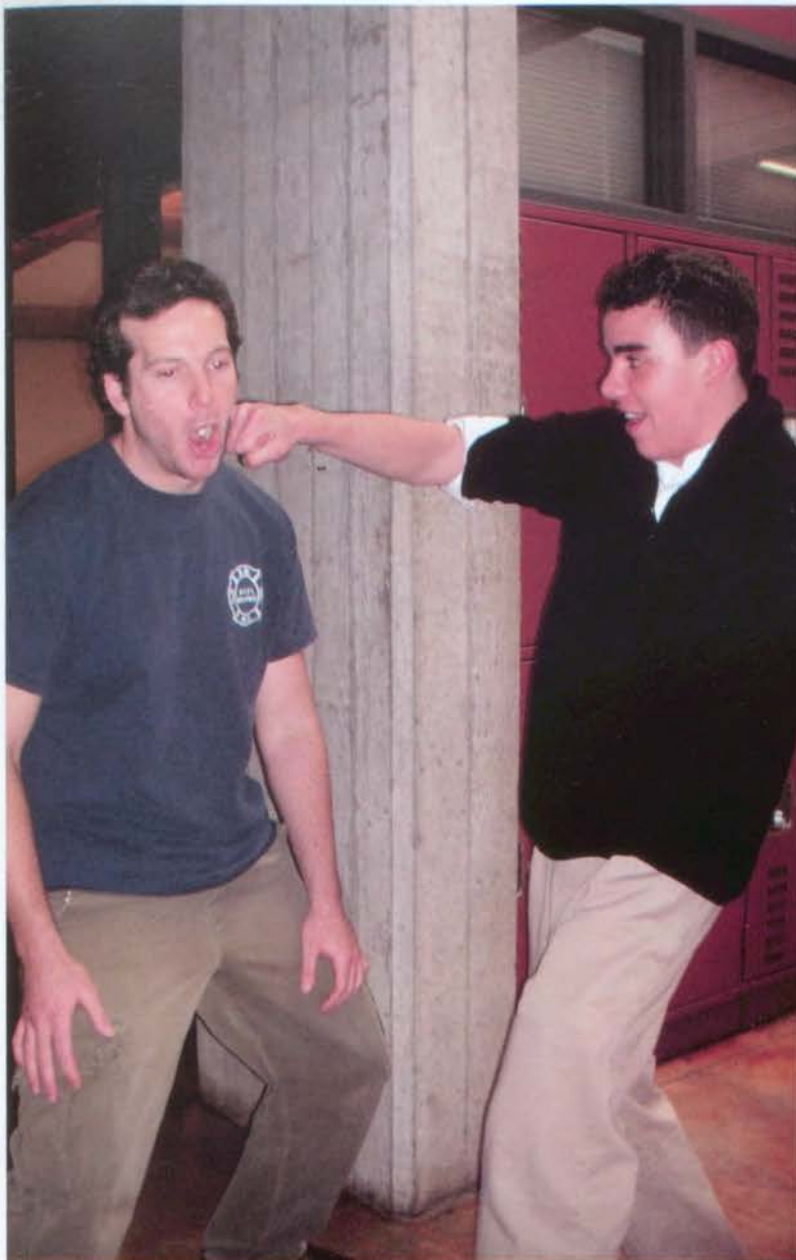

Mr. Mysterious
Quietly keeping to themselves, both Jamie Hozack and Stephen Buzbee have sports and personalities in common.

Mr. Suave
In the words of Lance Finkbeiner, "In our minds, Flynn and I think we are cool."

Ms. Social Butterfly
Elle Stark and Sarah Benson both thrive on the gossip that floats around the high school halls.

Mr. Sarcasm

If Michael Ufkes was born 10 years earlier his name would have been Dan Vesper because of their sarcastic personalities and "truth hurts" mentalities.

"Isabelle Delise. We both have political views, but she is more enlightened than I was in high school."
-Karen Green

Ms. Creativity

If you can't find Hannah Gilmore or Barb Smith, they are most likely in the art room working on their latest masterpiece.

Mr. Einstein

With their mad scientist hair and their intelligent minds, Marc Whitely and Andy MacCracken try to crack the latest physics mysteries.

Mr. International

Matt Wells and David Hach share a passion for traveling the world and studying the different aspects of cultures that exist today.

2007 James Bond

"Who done it...?"

"Just one word:
Moxie."
-Brad Bates

A Mural to the Misfits. Despite their tendencies to cause a stir, the seniors never cease to show their Aspen Skier pride. There truly is "No adjective to describe" them.

"Our class is just dope."
- Matt Butler

"We are just one big tight family."
-Claire Haughey and
Jenny Hearn

...Mysteriously the junior
spirit week shirts
disappeared...some speculate senior involvement...

With a face like that, Kelly
Garrett must have some tricks
up her sleeve planned for Joel Parada.

" If I could say one thing about the seniors it would be that our class is funny and full of energy!"
-Amanda Beach

Put 'em up!
Lorena Esquivel, Emigdio Salas, Delma Olave,
Bernardo Ruiz and Hannah Ohlson are only five of the mischievous seniors roaming the halls.

Ride 'em Cowgirl!
Kyla Sobieralski always has a noble steed handy
when she needs to escape a crime scene in a hurry.

Wow!

 Taylor.

Car Troubles?

The seniors started their notorious pranks with the infamous car incident during their junior year. The juniors wrapped the senior's cars with heavy duty seran wrap and plastered condiments over them.

Mountain Man or Prankster?

Prankster by night and climber by day, Matt Henderson indulges in a different type of risky business in mountain climbing.

Spirit Week

'High School Musical'

Teacher Chris Bonadies

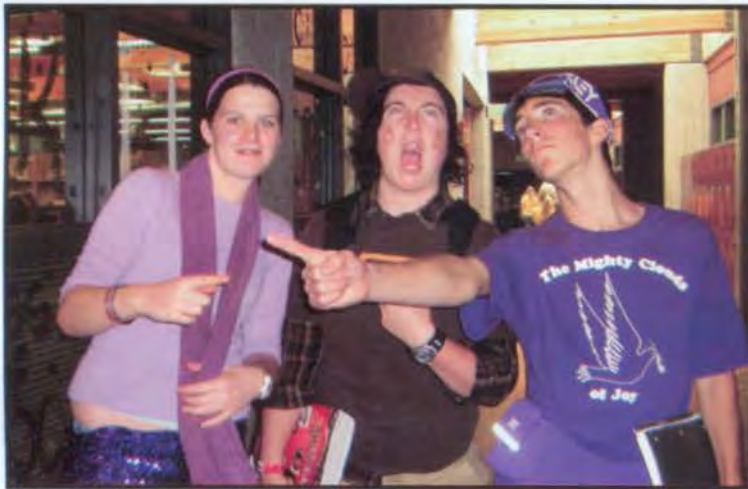

Senior Patrick Selby

Sophomore Corbin Dalstrom

Senior Shirley Moore

What a Spirited Bunch.

Freshman Hillary Wolfer, junior Natalie Nevins and freshman Phillip Nevins attempt to convince the world that they are the most spirited kids on class color day.

Captain's Hooks.

Sophomores Elissa Walter and Nick Byrne give Captain Hook a run for his money by showing that they can be just as vivacious and terrifying as he can.

Tweedle Dee and Tweedle Dum.

Freshmen Nique Vetromile and Keaton Doyle did not leave each other's side all day. If they did...their costumes just would not have worked.

Camouflage.

Sophomores Chessie Stokes and Chelsea Murdock attempt to blend in with the yellow trash can as they wait to attack an unsuspecting student with hugs and yellow decorations.

Mixing it up.

Snow White must be missing 6 of her 7 dwarfs because sophomore Beau Seguin (a.k.a. Minnie Mouse) has borrowed sophomores Mia Sadowsky, Brooke Gordon, Lizzy Eastly, Olivia Davis, Shelby Burke and Travis VanDomelen to help him make a new fairy tale.

Hey You!

Just because seniors Rory Suma and Loren Lujan don't know everybody's name, doesn't mean that they don't notice all of the blinding yellows and joyful purples roaming around.

A Trip Down Memory Lane.

Senior Kyla Sobieralski and junior Olivia Fanizza take us back to the good old days where we all fell love with the 101 Dalmatians and gasped at the sight of Cruella Deville.

Blast Off.

Senior Kyla Walter prepares to take flight as seniors Nicole Taylor, Julianne Davis and junior Jackie Standish stand by and make sure she has a successful lift off.

Spirit Week

"High School Musical"

Freshman Amy Wang

Junior Taylor Preusch

Teacher Marc Whitley

Juniors Sarah Nininger and Whitney Mufson

Back in Black.

Seniors Sherry Wang, Courtney Dunn, Jenny Hearn, Claire Westcott and Rian Mahaffey dress entirely in black to help show the rest of the school that the senior class is definitely capable of "bringing sexy back."

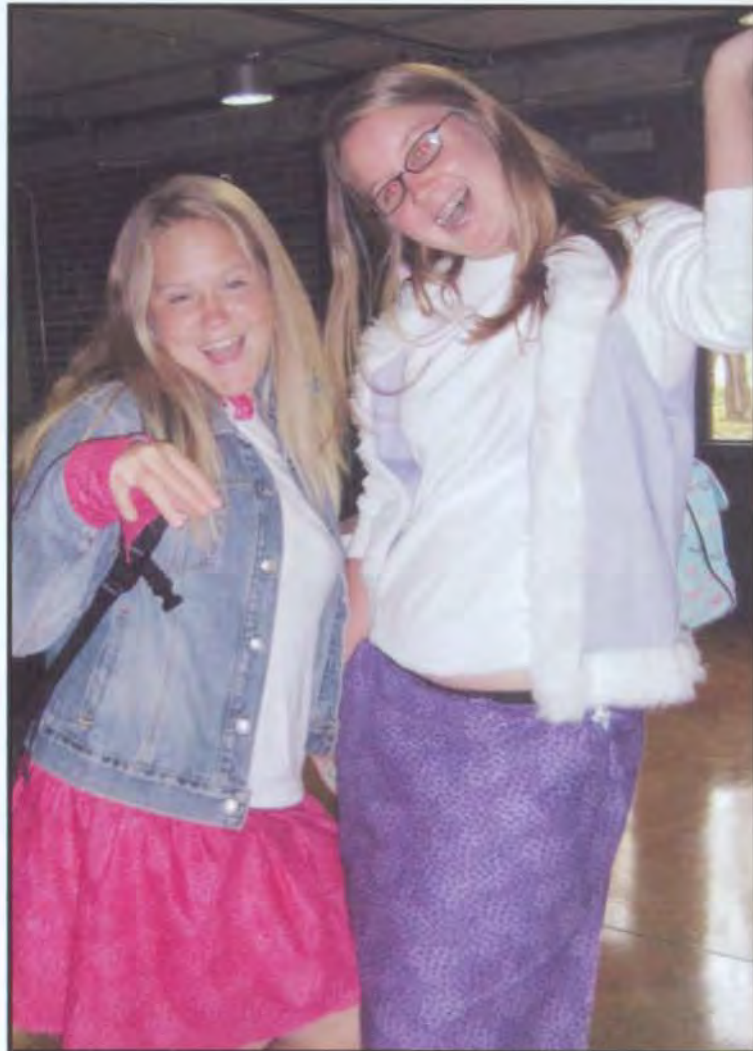

Purple Pride.

Freshmen M.E. Purnell and Kelsey McCartney sport their class color with dignity and confidence.

Aaarrggghhh!

Watch your lockers because Seniors Megan Raczak and Sara Faurer will steal your hidden treasure and escape on their ship.

Cheetah Power.

Seniors Taylor Schlepp and Reghan Mahaffey imitate Disney Channel's Cheetah Girls with just as much spirit and enthusiasm as the actual characters.

Tanned or Painted?

Juniors Simon Dolginow, Tyler Moore, Cory Parker and Ricky Frias show off their brown bodies as the rest of us wonder whether they went to a tanning salon or a paint shop.

Disney in Aspen.

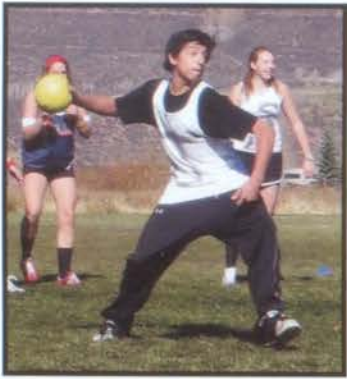

Sophomores Joe Wagner and Ariel Lowell take a break from their busy lives in Disneyland to grace us with their presence.

Sun Shiny Kids.
With all of the yellow that Sophomores Kiki Peisach, Tobie Tsuzuki and Hillary Fitzpatrick are wearing, our halls will be permanently as bright as the sun.

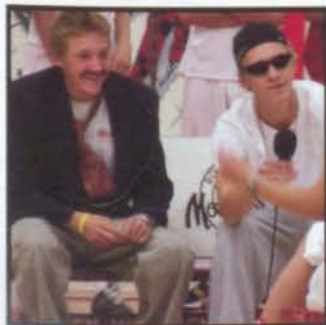

Surprise!
The Phantom Spirit has returned once again, decorating the halls and spreading the cheer with this masterpiece.

AtS Daily News raves:

"A unique and suspenseful class that will keep you on your toes throughout the whole year!"

During their first year as upperclassmen these talented and eager kids embark on a journey through their third year at Aspen High School.

These students will have to learn how to deal with their new responsibilities and higher expectations all while still trying to figure out how to survive their hardest year yet. In a time and place where sports, clubs, and academics take up much of their time, they must still find a way to keep their social lives at an acceptable level. Everything from their first time taking the ACT and SAT to their new IB classes will not only be watched by their peers and parents, but now colleges and universities are interested as well. The added pressure of actually trying to figure out what they want to do when high school comes to an end suddenly is thrust into the forefront. Through the previous eleven years of school they have wreaked havoc, broken rules, served countless hours of detention and forced numerous teachers to retire. Though they have had their fair share of rough times, these kids must learn the importance, dedication and patience through the "dreaded junior year."

The Understudies

AHS Daily News raves:

"The craziest, zaniest, most humorous class!"

Moving on to their second year of high school, this wild sophomore class joins together and shows their true personalities. Now that they have successfully completed their freshmen year, they begin to feel more comfortable in this tough atmosphere knowing that there is a fresh class of newbies for the seniors to judge. As the sophomores journey through the year, they face obstacles such as the newly required PSATs and PLAN tests while also feeling more pressure as the teachers have higher expectations. They somehow manage to undertake the challenge of balancing their hectic lives and stressful school work. With laughs, giggles, and an optimistic attitude, this group of goofy individuals will surely lighten the mood of any scene.

Multi-Tasking. Tyler Roos shows how to get it all done by listening to music, surfing the web, and talking on the phone...all at the same time!

Teehee! Arielle Shipe giggles a little bit while immersed in a phone conversation.

Stair Blocker. To avoid an accident, we advise all students maintain steady flow of hall traffic. Obviously Shelby Butler and the freshmen didn't get the memo.

Oh My! Sophomore Paul Jung is shocked at what he hears while trying to coordinate his after school plans.

Texting Under the Table. Ask any sophomore the most effective way to text and many of them will respond that it is simply doing it under the table. Katy Evans displays this method in true sophomore style.

...And they dropped the call!

Expressing her anger, Elissa Walter screams her lungs out during a frustrating call.

Sophomores and their cell phones, you see them everywhere. Out in the hallways, on the staircase, even at the lunch table. The recent expansion of cellular service in the school is perceived as a miracle by some, and a nuisance by others.

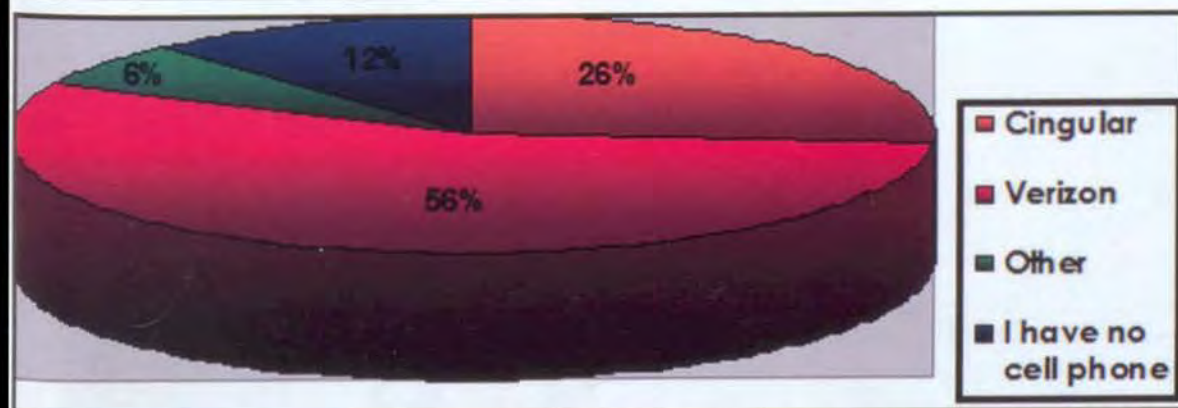

Teachers at Aspen High School have mixed opinions on it, some believe cell phones should be banned altogether, while other teachers say that as long as it is used responsibly and does not disturb class then it is acceptable. Whether it's the annoying ring, the tapping of buttons during a text message, or the speaker themselves, cell phones are here to stay and most sophomores are loving it.

Double Trouble

Taylor Ortiz and Rachel Sher catch up with their friends while "trying" to study in the library.

Freshmen The Extras

AHS Principal raves:

"This is the best looking class in the school! What's not to like?"

This fearful bunch of newcomers travel through the mysterious halls of an unknown world, dodging every towering creature that comes their way. They must survive tests, quizzes, homework, tardies, getting lost, gossip and many other challenges of high school life.

With no idea what is in store for them, they must overcome these first year of obstacles and proceed onward. These kids give great efforts into building friendships with the intimidating seniors to help them slip through freshmen year easily. Getting used to new rules is tough, but they attempt to persevere through the school year, until summer vacation saves them.

- Brianna Morse

No game? Studder over your words? Try out these pick up lines that other freshmen suggested....

1. Do you believe in love at first sight or should I walk by again?
2. If you stood in front of a mirror and held up 11 roses, you would see 12 of the most beautiful things in the world.
3. Baby, you must be a broom, 'cause you just swept me off my feet.
4. Baby, you're so sweet, you put Hershey's outta business.
5. Are you a parking ticket? 'Cause you've got FINE written all over you.
6. I hope you know CPR 'cause you take my breath away!
7. Have you ever been arressted? 'Cause it's gotta be illegal to look that good.

^^ Mike Aresty is the king of pick up lines.

"Baby, did you fart? Cause you blow me away."

"Do your feet hurt? Cause you have been running through my mind all day."

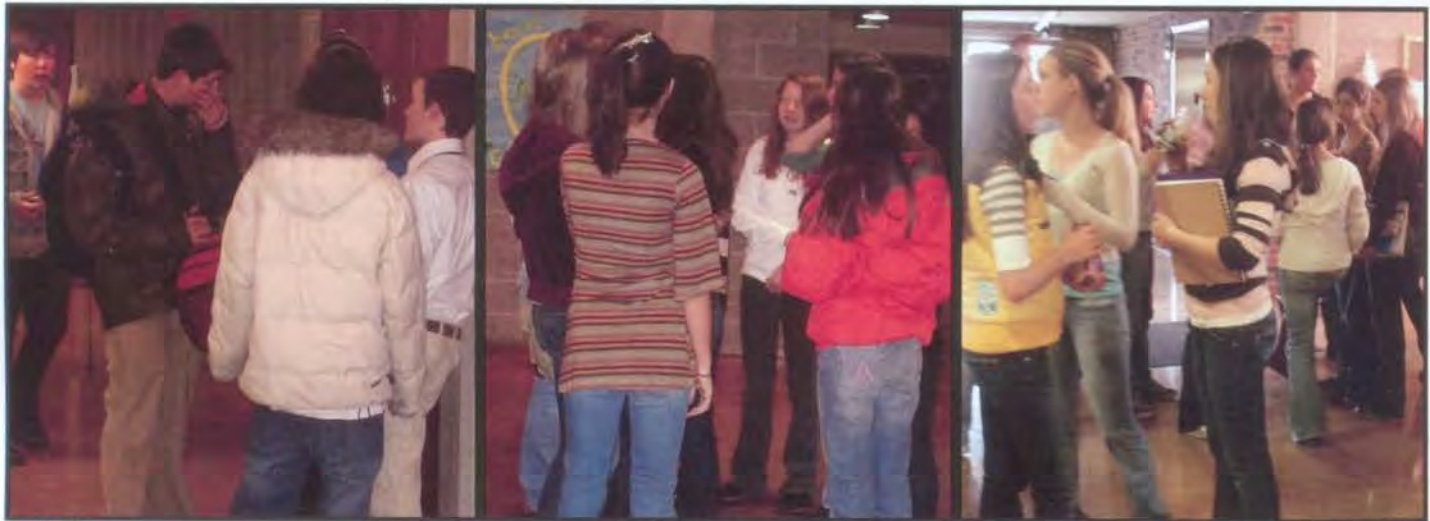

Freshmen Dont's...

"The Little Rascals"

Don't Rock the Boat. Freshmen Gracie Nichols, Haley Rinaldi, and Nicole Weiss pop a squat on the famous boat

Being a freshmen, you want to keep a low profile. Most freshmen try not to get noticed too much, but some freshmen wear outfits that call attention to themselves and seniors take notice. Even taking up mirror space in the bathrooms can get some upperclassmen flustered. Some seniors get frazzled when freshmen are blocking their path on their way down the red staircase. Also, the prime real estate of the boat is a "no-no" for any wandering rascals, and being seen on the two story piece of wood could cause unwanted attention. Some freshmen think they will score some older boys by dressing up and putting on make-up, but seniors made it clear- they don't notice.

MOVE!

Groups of freshmen "clump" in the halls and around the red staircase between each class.

Looking Good.

Sarah King, Samatha Crippin, Nicole Argerous, and Elle Crugnale love to show off their fashionable outfits.

"Axe, but they're kinda the same." ~Conor
"Axe cause it smells good, but I've never really used Tag." ~A.J.

Brianna Mordkin

...have a top locker or bottom locker?

"I'd rather have a top locker because it's easier to get to and you don't have to kneel down on your knees."

Cristal Trevizo

...be Superman or Spiderman?

"Um...Superman because he is strong."

Elleree Fletcher, Nicole Argeros, Samantha Crippen, and Caroline Schifano

...star in a movie or be a rock star?

"A rock star but I can't sing for my life!" ~Elleree

"Star in a movie because rock stars get fat and over dose." ~Nicole

"Star in a movie! Who wants to be a rock star?! They're overrated!" ~Samantha

"Star in a movie for all the same reasons." ~Caroline

Ari Bibby

...go to Starbucks or Zele?

"Zele because it's more of an independent company"

Hannah Pike

...date a friend or a stranger?

"I'd rather date a stranger because with a friend, if you break up it's gonna be awkward. You know?"

Stunt Doubles

AHS Daily News raves:

"The stunt doubles bring a special twist of excitement and suspense to the feature presentation of Aspen High School."

Students by day and dare devils by night; this group of talented performers are capable of enduring the most physically demanding and extreme tasks in order to put on an exciting show. They practice and train all year in hopes of beating valley rivals or even winning a state championship. They fight for glory and a chance to represent their school in competitions. The stunt doubles of Aspen High School, also known as the Skiers, know how to make any performance intriguing and suspenseful, even if they have to risk their physical well being. These AHS stunt doubles specialize in a variety of varsity level stunts including: Football, Softball, Volleyball, Tennis, Golf, Cross Country, Soccer, Basketball, Alpine and Nordic Skiing, Hockey, Swimming and Diving, Dance, Baseball, and Track and Field. Without these stunt doubles performing these herioc feats, the daily lives of the Skiers might be a bit boring.

Boys' Golf

"Happy Gilmore"

Golf is a game where you hit a ball the size of a clementine into a hole just as big, although the difficulty doesn't stop there. In addition to getting the ball in the hole, there are numerous lakes, rivers, and the infamous sand traps that are constantly getting in the way! The Aspen High School Boys' Golf team had a great year. They played on courses such as Black Canyon, Cobble Creek, Bookcliff, Battlement Mesa, and the State Tournament at Haymaker in Steamboat. The strange fall weather in Colorado could not even disrupt the team. They pulled through and played their best, sending the ball to its home.

Long Iron. Freshman Zach Kop's decision to use an iron instead of a wood payed off as the ball lands on the green.

"His bags are packed, he's got his tickets, send the ball home, Happy." - Chubbs Peterson

First Row: Desmond Duggan, Nicholas Porcaro, James Pardee, Nicky Erickson, Zach Kops, Michael Ryerson. Second Row: Garrett Greene, J. Daly, Conor Hansen, Gerald Hua, Tommy Davis, Gordo Weihe. Third Row: Logan Casebeer, Michael Cartier

Swing! Freshman Connor Hansen connects with the ball creating that famous "ping" sound.

"Golf...It's the only game where the ball will travel hundreds of yards in one hit."

-Junior Gerald Hua

What is your golf ball of choice?

Nicky Erickson
"Callaway Black. Word."

Nicholas Porcaro
"Nike Mojo"

Gerald Hua
"Callaway Black"

James Pardee
"The yellow ones from the lake. Muy bien."

Follow Through! Freshman Tommy Davis achieves a perfect hit, letting the ball soar through the air.

BOYS' TENNIS

"Match Point"

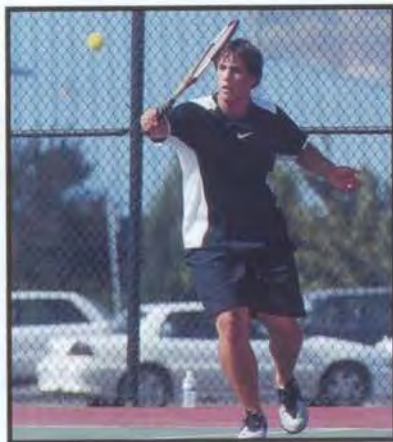

According to Head Coach Sherril Kerr the team this year was, "Very eager to learn and were hard workers." The team practiced exceptionally hard and played even harder in tournaments. "This year's team has been one of the best all the way down the board," said Kerr. With a very productive season, senior Skyler Maclean, juniors Jakub Gers and Reese Hankins, sophomores King Koehler, Ryan Dunn, and Christer DeBoer, and freshman Kyle Feuer all made it to the State Tournament this year. The team placed 2nd at Regionals and 2nd at States.

Serving! Sophomore Tyler Roos prepares by dribbling the ball.

Slam! Senior Dylan Bontempo reaches out with a one-handed backhand.

Ace! Senior Skyler Maclean slams a serve cross court.

Approach Shot! Sophomore Ryan Dunn volleys at the net.

Champions! Sophomores King Koehler and Christer DeBoer share a hug after they both won their games on September 16, 2006.

Backhand! Freshman Indiana Lane perfectly returns one of freshman Kyle Feuer's hard hit serves on the Add side of the court.

DANCE

"Step Up"

This talented group of dancers performed at half time for football and basketball games as well as competed against other dance teams in the state. This year's captain, Sophie Ben-Hamoo, led Ruckus through many dance events including opening for the Action in Africa showing of Invisible Children with spirit and pizzazz. The coach, Heather Star, choreographed many dances which ranged from hip-hop to jazz to ballet with songs related to upcoming events such as the homecoming theme, pep rally theme, sport event, etc. These girls brought school spirit, enthusiasm, and style to a whole new level.

SWIMMING

"Finding Nemo"

This year the swim team was lead by head coaches Calan Gibney and Cliff Rosell along with captains senior Elle Stark and junior Annie Buettow. Sophomores Chelsey Hanle and Taylor Ortiz, the team's two lone divers, dove their way through the season making their team proud. At the League Championships in Grand Junction, Aspen placed 8th and senior Elle Stark placed 6th in 100M Butterfly, which was the highest finish amongst the team. All around, it was a successful season with tons of new faces that should make for a promising future for our swim team.

First Row: Kaitlin Gerson, Lizbeth Barron, Jaeda Sichel, Rachel Sher. Second Row: Head Coach Calan Gibney, Sophie Ben-Hamoo, Elle Stark, Annie Buettow, Steffi Klawiter, Jennie McLellen, Assistant Coach Cliff Rosell, Megan Karaus, Marieta Bialek, Keaton Doyle. Junior Steffi Klawiter takes her last breath before the flip turn going into the final 25 of her 500 yard Freestyle.

I Hate Mornings.
After her early morning Starbucks, junior Lizbeth Barron gets ready to cheer on her teammates who made it to the second day of Leagues.

I'm Hungry!
Freshman Keaton Doyle wolfs down some ice cream after six hours of competing in League Championships in Grand Junction.

Oh My Goodness!
"I have to swim the 500?!" Junior Annie Buettow's face shows that she isn't too happy about that one.

"We dropped it like it was 2-12!"
-Senior Elle Stark

Just Chillin'.
Junior Steffi Klawiter, sophomores Sayer Baker, Rachel Sher, Chelsey Hanle, senior Elle Stark, freshman Kaitlin Gerson, and junior Annie Buettow relax after diving.

FOOTBALL

"The Little Giants"

As Spike from The Little Giants once said, "No Mercy"! Filled with senior leadership, the Skiers began relentlessly training on August 14th, with aspirations to make it to the state playoffs in mind. Their never-ending ambition aided this hard-working team in overcoming obstacles such as: playing in blizzarding conditions, building up muscle and attempting to set a new standard for AHS football. Their determination paid off because on October 13th this "brotherhood" (Senior Zac Giammarrusco) led Aspen High School to a Homecoming victory against Hotchkiss under the lights! Coach Travis Benson should be extremely proud because this season these boys truly "lived their lives like playing a game; with respect and dicipline."

Anticipation. As the other team gets ready to hike the ball, junior defensive linemen Tucker Eason and sophomore Travis VanDomelen prepare to stop them from gaining a single yard.

Go Deep. Junior Harry Maniloff drops back into the pocket as his offensive line, including senior Dillon Morehead, protects him.

We Will Rock You. Sophomores Beau Seguin, Travis VanDomelen, and Walker Hill, and seniors Jordan Laughren and Anthony DiMento get hyped up for their first home game.

Heads In. Head Coach Travis Benson energetically reveals the next plan of action.

Top Ten Most Memorable Moments This Season:

1. Harry took out Jeff Gerbaz.
2. Ben Baker tackled the Olathe quarterback into a mud puddle.
3. David Clark calling himself Zeus.
4. "Blood" was shed on the field.
5. Jordan trucked David Clark.
6. "Clark the Iguana".
7. The snowstorms.
8. The fireworks at homecoming.
9. Watching Jordan do the 'shut down' claim.
10. Winning homecoming.

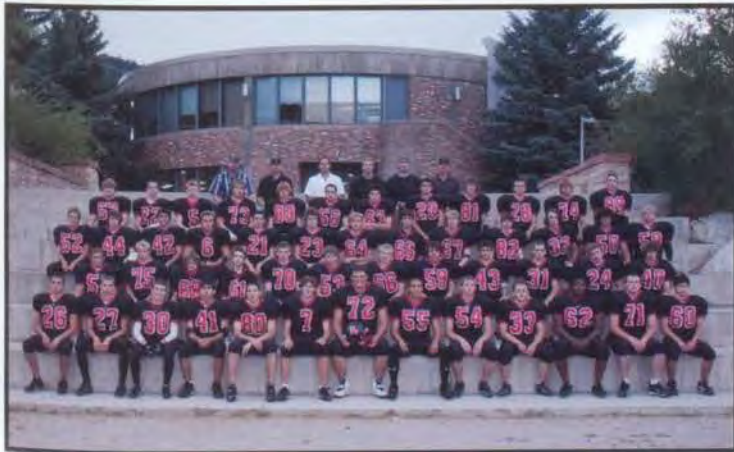

Formation. Senior Michael Ufkes sprints to his position in line so the play can commence.

Friday Night Lights!

Clockwise from Upper Left:

- Junior Harry Maniloff waits to receive the snap and go for a first down.
- Junior Jeff Gerbaz hustles onto the field to take his position.
- Freshmen James Britvar, Matt Holmes and Carl Spiroff grab a quick bite to eat for energy to beat the opposing team.
- Senior David Clark leads the defensive line of senior Rory Suma and junior Brian Westerlind, in holding off the opposing team while sophomore Travis VanDomelen backs them up.
- Freshmen Jack Bird, Nicky Fuller, Walker Moriarty, Tim Beirne, and sophomores Joe Wagner and Cooper Le Van surround the rest of the Junior Varsity team in an enthusiastic huddle under the new stadium lights.

The Top Ten Sayings for the Season:

1. "Truck That Kid!"
2. "Plus Four!"
3. "Nine Five Nine!"
4. "Next Evolution!"
5. "Tom Curren!"
6. "WAAAAA!"
7. "Work harder everyday!"
8. "Let's win conference!"
9. "Brotherhood!"
10. "Tempo!"

"On defense we just truck, truck, truck."

Senior
Ben Baker

"Push it to the limit. Walk along the razor's edge. Don't look down; just keep your head up till you finish. Open up the limit passed the point of no return, reach the top but you gotta learn how to keep it."

Senior
Zac Giammarrusco

"TRUCK! tm."

Senior
Anthony DiMento

"Winning is not a sometimes thing. It is an all the time thing. You don't win once in a while; you don't do things right once in a while. You do it right all the time. Winning is a habit."

Senior
David Clark

"All I do is truck, truck, truck, truck, truck! tm."

Senior
Dillon Morehead

"The game owes you nothing. You owe the game everything. No regrets."

Senior
Matt Beirne

Let's Get It Going. Seniors Michael Ufkes, Matt Beirne, David Clark, and junior Brian Westerlind are ready to show off their skills and get the first down.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

"Love and Basketball"

Jeremy Haack took over the new roll as head coach for the varsity girls this year. Dave Conarroe, once the varsity coach, took over the JV and C team girls along with the help of Jamie Mahaffey. The switch around was new for the varsity girls, but they were enthusiastic to work hard for Coach Haack. The Aspen Skiers started out their season with midnight madness, practicing from 12:00-2:00, sleeping, then awaking early for another practice before lunch. In each game, all teams, put up a great fight for a win. With three returning seniors and three eager juniors it was a race for starting spots. Two sophomores and two freshmen also suited up and saw playing time as well. With rough games against stiff competitors, the Skiers held tough and rounded out the season with a few wins to be proud of.

Heads Up! Junior Grace Seigle looks for an open pass.

Coach Jamie Mahaffey, Liz Baty, Sally Meyer, Caroline Kelley, Gina Nuzzo, Coach Dave Conarroe, Kylie Westerlind, Katy Evans, Brooke Gordon, Shelby Burke, Arielle Shipe, Sarah Nininger, Georgia Lipkin.

Foul Shot. Freshman Lindsey Anderson shoots her second foul shot while the rest of the team waits for the rebound.

I'm Open. Junior Grace Seigle sprints in for a pass from junior Julia Hassall who is trapped in a corner.

Put it up!

 -Taylor Schlepp, Reghan Mahaffey, Lindsey Anderson, Kylie Westerlind, and Katy Evans discuss their plays at lunch.
 -Julia Hassall, Grace Seigle, and Reghan Mahaffey preform a skit for the Winter Pep Rally.
 -During the third quarter, the team gathers around Coach Haack for uplifting words during a time out.

"Don't pass me the ball, I'm not Julia!"
 -Senior Taylor Schlepp

"If they counted fouls as points, I would be the leading scorer."
 -Senior Reghan Mahaffey

"I still want the pillows!"
 -Senior Ashley Ryan

"Give me the ball Taylor!"
 -Junior Julia Hassall

"FSSSHHHT! Not anymore!"
 -Junior Grace Seigle

Drive. Senior Taylor Schlepp dribbles through two defenders while she drives the ball to the hoop.

Jump Shot. Senior Ashley Ryan rebounds a lay-up while sophomore Katy Evens shoots a jump shot.

Running the clock. Junior Grace Seigle dribbles the ball while waiting to hand off the ball to a teammate.

VOLLEYBALL

"Save the Last Dance"

Aspen High School families and friends raved that the volleyball teams this year were much more fun to watch and improved greatly from the past year. The Varsity team ended their season third in the league and getting third in the District Tournament. They had high expectations for themselves and the defeat in the semi-finals in the District Tournament was an unfortunate loss to the team that finished first in the league. Seniors Kyla Walter and Megan Raczak were named to the All Conference Team while seniors Robin Landis and Brittany Zanin were awarded honorable mention. As opposed to last season's 1-15 record, the Junior Varsity ended their season with a much improved 8-8 record. The C team ended their season with 4 wins and 11 losses, once again an improvement from last year. There were seven seniors this year and although their talent and personalities will be missed, we are looking forward to another victorious season next year. The varsity team fought hard and although finally defeated, the seniors saved their last dance together.

Team! The Varsity team pumps each other up after a timeout.

"We weren't tall, but at least we were short!"
-Head Coach Matt Bergdahl

HOCKEY

"Miracle"

Aspen High School's "Miracle on Ice"...
2007 5A STATE CHAMPIONS

Their goal at the beginning of the season was to be state ranked and now they are #1! With a combination of hard work and strong leadership from the 6 seniors, this year's hockey team made it all the way for the first time in AHS history. "It was a total team effort. You can't pick out one or two star players, everyone on the team contributed to [their] victory." The championship game was a real "nail-biter" with just one lone goal by senior Nicky Anastas. But the boys fought through the whole game and ended up on top with great determination and amazing play by senior goalie Kody Hornburg. It was an incredible season with an unforgettable ending and in the words of Nicky Anastas, "It almost brings tears to the eyes."

STATE CHAMPS!

Members of the 2007 team celebrate with their well deserved trophy after winning the State Championship.

The Bald and the Beautiful!
Talk about team unity! Almost every single member of this year's Aspen High School hockey team shaved their heads in celebration of winning States.

We are the Champions My Friends!!!

"Hambone!...He was the best!"
-Andy Conarroe

"Frick and Frat are at it again!"
-Nicky Anastas

"There's only one Cory Parker, me and Cory Parker."
-Ryder Fyrwald

"He's big, he's red, his feet stick out the bed, Peter Crouch."
-Matt Cooper

"Is it better to live like a coward and die like a man, or live like a man and die like a coward?"
-Kody Hornburg

"We State Champs!!"

SOFTBALL

"A League of Their Own"

Softball, the girls version of baseball, but the ball isn't so soft. This year the team was tough and ready to hit the ball right back at the opponent's face. With only five returning players and ten new additions to the team, they surprised us all. Although they did not win a league game, they played exceptionally well and since they had five new freshmen, the team will get much better within the next two years. Sadly, they lost five seniors including their starting pitcher, Taylor Schelpp, first baseman, Taylor Buzbee, catcher, Reghan Mahaffey, and second baseman, Nicole Taylor. Head Coach Ed Zane said "We had a young, inexperienced team this year. Although we had a poor record [2-9], we had a lot of highlights and showed a lot of improvement. We have some good talent coming back next year and I'm looking forward to working with the team again." With four doubles, three homeruns, 11 stolen bases, and the highest batting average, senior Reghan Mahaffey shined above everyone's expectations this year and the team will miss her leadership and softball skills.

Soft Toss. Warming up for a game, senior Nicole Taylor smacks the ball to her awaiting team ready to practice their outfielding.

SKIING

"Aspen Extreme"

State Champions 2007!

The 2007 ski season was one of the the best for both Alpine and Nordic. With the group led by 12 seniors, both teams were able to come together and win the State Championships in Vail! The Alpine girls finished second over all and the boys dominated the other teams including having junior Wiley Maple win the race all together. The Nordic girls received second as well, and the boys swept the podium all three days of states. Not only did the nordic boys prevail in Colorado, but they also traveled to Soldier Hollow, Utah to win the Junior National Championships. Both Alpine and Nordic teams had amazing seasons and definitely have something to be proud of.

CROSS COUNTRY

"Saint Ralph"

Running; who knows why the cross country team does it? We don't know, and they probably don't either, but they still do it. Maybe they like the gusty wind in their sweaty faces or having people cheer as they sprint to the finish line. Last year there were only two seniors, but this year the total grew up to ten, including: Laura Hatanaka, Noah Hoffman, Nate Marris, Barton Tofany, Jacob O'Connor, Haylen Gregory, Claire Haughey, Dylan Rayburn, and Elle Stark. They led the Skiers to second place in the Denver race and went to the State Finals, where Noah Hoffman won the state title for the Varsity Boys. The team finished 8th in the state.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

"Coach Carter"

This year's boys basketball program was filled with heart, talent, and pure love of the sport. This amazing varsity group finished with 13 wins and only 5 losses. Both the Junior Varsity and the C-Team also had phenomenal seasons, finishing with numerous wins. The varsity team made it to the semi-finals in the regional tournament and lost a heartbreaking game, which ended their nevertheless victorious season. Junior Cory Parker was voted the unanimous MVP of the league and was second in the state for scoring. He also was awarded First Team All League and First Team All State. Junior Brian Westerlind was named First Team All League as well. Juniors Tommy Rittenhouse and Michael Taylor and senior Michael Holmes were awarded honorable mentions. Although Aspen High School looks forward to the years to come with the successful young team, lead by captains Parker and Westerlind, it will be tough to move on without the senior captain Michael Holmes who provided physical and mental leadership along with his love for basketball.

Victory! The varsity team is congratulated after taking a second place victory in the Steamboat Springs tournament.

Brotherly Love. Freshman Matt Holmes and senior Michael Holmes high-five each other coming off the court.

Boys' Soccer

"The Big Green"

The boy's soccer program had an amazing season. The Varsity team had a great year with 11 graduating seniors. This season has meant a great deal to the whole team including Head Coach Junior Sutherland who has been coaching these boys since they were only 11 years old. He also said to the upcoming Varsity team that "they will have some tough shoes to fill." The Varsity had an outstanding conference season finishing with an 11-1 record. Overall, including tournaments, they had 13 wins and only 2 losses. They are one of the best teams in the league and also made it to the State Championships and ended up in the Final Four. The JV team also had a successful season and ended up with 6 wins, 4 losses, and 2 ties. Both teams also won their Homecoming games and completed the season with a lot to be proud of.

Academics The Directors

Teacher and IB Coordinator Karen Zohar exclaims:

"Academics at AHS are special because students and teachers work together as a team. Very few schools have the same type of connection that we have here."

From Stage Design to IB Mathematics, students have a countless number of courses to choose from this year, and with every class chosen, there comes an instructor to help direct the students farther down the path toward end-of-the-year exams. Although there are a few kinks (i.e. falling asleep in class, piles of homework and tons of studying) along the way, kids will hopefully be able to make it to summer vacation with their enthusiasm intact.

AHS's Skier Sentinel

The first Skier Sentinel of the 2006-07 school year showed up all around the school in mid-November. With interesting articles from the new stadium to tips on how to get to class on time, it was hard for anyone to put the long-awaited newspaper down.

Publications included journalism, writing workshop, and even working on the newspaper. Writing workshop gave students the chance to expand their vocabulary and think about writing in a new way. Since it was only a 45 minute class, some lucky freshmen got half a free period to get some last minute homework done or purchase some munchies for their next class. The AHS paper, Skier Sentinel, was published with the joined efforts of writing workshop teacher Julie Gummerman, junior editor Nathalie Nevins, and a whole bundle of underclassmen. The work load of making sure the paper is perfect could sometimes be overbearing for the only editor, but four lucky freshmen hopped on the newspaper boat this year to help fill in the senior gaps.

With the addition of Sarah Strassburger, the Aspen High School faculty feels this year's English department was better than ever.

With classic teachers like Nancy Fehrmann to relatively new teachers like Marybeth Thompson, English hit new heights in 2007. Being the only male, Andy Popinchalk didn't seem fazed and he always encouraged students to think outside the box when it came to literature.

"Those who fail to learn history the first time around are doomed to repeat it, doomed to repeat it, doomed to repeat it..."

They're back, and this year's Social Studies department was better than ever. Thanks to some of the best teachers in the school, the Aspen High School students learned more about history than ever before. With such a great staff and eager students, Social Studies sure reached new levels in 2007.

Math

<< Study Buddy
Freshmen Christopher Dreher always studies with a sophomore, Chelsey Hanle, that way you never get an answer wrong.

Teacher Aide >>
Teacher Jim Morris points to freshmen Gracie Nichols' error in her math homework.

<< Oh...I Get It!
Senior Ashley Ryan is having one of those moments when the answer to the equation is on the tip of her tongue, but she just can't get it. But suddenly it clicks...and the answer is all hers.

"Mathematicians won the war. Mathematicians broke the Japanese codes... and built the A-bomb. Mathematicians... like you."

<< Who's Organized?!?!
Sophomore Kiki Peisach proudly displays her very impressive math binder.

<< Math Nerds
Teachers: Ian Wagner, Dr. Jean Carey, Brook Green, Bernadette Pelinski, Jim Morris, and Jamie Hozack.

TI-83 Power! >>
Sophomore Kelly McLellan punches out equations on her fancy calculator.

Math is the voice of numbers. For some the subject comes by instinct, others it is a mind-boggling daze. The Math Department was stronger than ever this year, with the new addition (no pun intended) of Math Enrichment teacher Brook Green. All five teachers have brought a broad knowledge of math to the table. So even for those who are not inclined to math, these teachers made the ride as smooth as possible.

Science teachers Sarah Benson, Marc Whitley, Karen Zohar, Andre Wille, Travis Moore, and Brent Maiolo.

"Weird Science"

Were You Listening?

Science teacher Brent Maiolo quizzes freshmen Rachel True on the types of rocks they recently learned in Geology class. The real question is whether she payed attention or not.

Amy Wang

Q: What do you like about science class so far?

A: "It has to do with fish... in some way."

Q: What experiments would you like to do that you haven't done yet?

A: "Disect a fish. No, I'm just kidding. That would be kind of nasty, with the fish guts and stuff!"

Dissecting cats and breeding sea urchins! What went on in the Science department? This unforgettable group had students laughing throughout the each class while they discovered their way to college. These teachers are all about "hands on" experiments that expanded the mind and the workload. Sarah Benson said, " We don't want to have to hold your hand. Life is about finding things out for yourself."

Foreign Languages

<< Hippopotamus!
Seniors Kyla Walter and Claire Haughey ride a hippo during a visit to the Denver Zoo.

Runway Models >>

Freshmen Megan Karaus, Hilary Wolfer, M.E. Purnell, Caroline Schifano, Kelsey Tofany, Rachel True, Rachel Stout and Tara Seyffert show off their costumes for the French fashion show.

<< Let's Dance!

Senior Matt Cooper helps instruct the class how to tango!

Puppet Masters >>

Seniors Dillon Morehead, Sam Ferguson, and Matt Beirne have fun with their puppet show.

<< Ice, Ice Baby!

Seniors Nate Marrs, Sarah Richardson, Laura Hatanaka, and Alicia Leto show off their popsicle stick characters.

Vogue >>

The Foreign Language department was filled with fun projects along with the deep learning and understanding of some of the languages spoken throughout this world. Rossina Allen, Amy Logan, Rene Moody, and Ashley Gidley starred in teaching the students how to communicate in unfamiliar languages and respect foreign cultures. With our strong program of both IB and non IB language courses, students are no longer lost in translation.

"Lost in Translation"

Rossina Allen

Rossina Allen, who is taking the year off next year to rest and recover from teaching, said this about her students: "Durante mi año de descanso, pensaré en mis estudiantes. Los quiero mucho!"

(Can you figure out what this quote means or are you lost in translation?)

Rene Moody

Rene Moody, one of the new teachers at AHS said, "I have been impressed at how people here have strong relationships. That is one of the main reasons I came to Aspen."

I am enjoying getting to know people and look forward to strong relationships to come.

English as a Second Language

Zhen Han & Iris Chacon

Q. What do you like most about ESL?

A. (Zhen) "Not a lot of homework, get out for lunch early and a funny teacher."

Q. Where are you from and what language have you grown up speaking?

A. (Iris) "I lived in Mexico and spoke Spanish."

Mario Orellana & Linda Lafferty

Q. What is your favorite word in English?

A. "Hungry."

Q. When and why did you choose to teach ESL?

A. (Linda) "I began in Spain with the Royal Family and an English School in Madrid. Then I came and taught English in the Middle School in 1980."

The English as a Second Language class members worked through the year learning not only the core subjects and electives, but English as well. These students have all grown up speaking languages from other places, including Spanish, Chinese, and Portuguese. The teacher, Linda Lafferty, pushed them to do their best to become fluent in the difficult and crazy language of English.

Business

<< Good Times
Sophomore Jordan Meyer and freshman Lucie Shore cannot get enough of sophomore Corbin Dahlstrom's antics.

<< Pay Attention!
Senior Michael Holmes and junior Kaitlyn Hooper count the minutes till the end of school.

Up High! >>
Juniors Stephen Pike and Mark Lamberti celebrate a correct answer in Conarroe's Marketing class.

VV WHY??
Freshman Jesse Hoffman raises his hand and asks the obvious question, "Why is it so stinkin' hot in this room?" Luckily, Jesse's and everyone else's dreams came true when the vents were fixed and cool air flowed into room 1231.

<< Jocks
Juniors Gaelen Means, Austin Hills, and Reese Hankins listen intently in Sports Marketing to learn about their future sports careers.

Enthusiasm >>
Sophomores Kyle Lusk, Logan Casebeer, Bo Welden, and Manuel Jurado struggle to withhold their excitement in MSO.

Business Education classes may be electives, but they are also known as some of the most useful classes in the real world. A recent Aspen High School graduate was quoted saying that "keyboarding is the only class that I still use." Many students go to college to major in business so having classes such as Economics, Marketing, and Career Planning are almost necessities for a future Peter Gibbons. With the rapid growth of the business world and technology, the Business Department will inevitably grow too.

"P.E. is fun! Nauset Ball & Dodge Ball Rock!!!"
- Coach K
Coach Ketchum teaches Net & Raquet Sports, Ball

Sports and Weight Training. The students enjoy the classes because they are fun and they are able to enjoy their time in the class.

Water Fitness

Calan Gibney teaches Water Fitness and Health. In Water Fitness, she helps her students work on their swimming skills and their fitness.

Lizbeth Barron said that the class was fun, exciting and good because it had nothing to do with writing and academics.

Two teachers split the difficult physical work of the days teaching P.E. this past year. Calan Gibney taught Health and Water Fitness while Steve Ketchum taught Ball Sports, Net & Racquet Sports, and Weight Training. Between the two of them, they conquered the world of fitness and taught kids about the excitement of keeping your body in shape. This way they won't end up like the guy in Super Size Me, puking out of their car window in a McDonald's drive-thru...

Art

Art and Gourds >>
Senior and junior students in Smith's "Art of Craft" class gather together to paint gourds.

<< Hard at Work
Seniors Rian Mahaffey, Demetra Kayne, and Sophomore Mia Sadowsky concentrate on perfecting their work.

<< Ceramics
Junior Meagan Jonsson creates an individualistic clay box in Marti Cyrus' ceramics class.

<< Costumes

<< Artists at Work
Junior Jimmy Budwell and sophomore Piper Ferguson add detail to their personal art journals.

The Beginning >>
Freshman Marieta Bialek and sophomore Whitney Will fill up their sketch books in Art 1.

This year, the Art department really progressed with each student having their own creative ideas as well as learning great art techniques from their teachers, Marti Cyrus and Barb Smith. Both had a lot on their hands juggling the Art 1, Drawing and Design, and IB classes. Nevertheless, they taught each class with great enthusiasm and encouragement. Students loved the freedom to express themselves in any creative way they desired.

"Mona Lisa Smile"

Barb Smith

Smith teaches Painting, Art of Craft, Senior Studio, and IB Art. She says, "Teaching art is like eating chocolate everyday!"

Smith is strict on her students because she wants them to learn and succeed to the best of their ability.

Marti Cyrus

Marti Cyrus teaches Art 1, Drawing and Design, and Ceramics.

One of her favorite quotes is "To feel valued, to know even if only once in a while, that you can do a job well is an absolutely marvelous feeling."
-Barbara Walters.

Susan Wasienko

Susan Wasienko teaches Band, Orchestra and Choir.

This was her first year teaching at Aspen High School. She definitely had her work cut out for her but she did an amazing job.

Susan Wasienko made the music program expand and grow this year. Being the teacher of band, orchestra, and choir, she helped the students learn new things about music in the world.

Having the smallest choir ever, they were able to get a lot done, but always encouraged other students to join. The band and orchestra was filled with many talented students who worked hard at every practice and it showed in all of their shows throughout the year. Music and theater was a way for the students to express themselves and do what they love to do.

Student Services

<< Pile On!
Student Services teachers Dev Carey, Tom Mensch, Andrea Ames, Amanda Christian, Vince Johnson, and Debbie Overeynder.

Well Deserved Break >>
Amanda Ames and Tom Mensch welcome newcomer Dev Carey to the office.

<< Choices
Junior Lauren Jackson contemplates which line to get in during lunch...and then what to get.

<< Sticking Together
Sophomore Rochelle Broughton and junior Lauren Jackson have always got each other's backs.

<< Don't Mess!
Billy Bernard eats lunch with teachers Vince Johnson and Amanda Christian.

Little Help >>
Debbie Overeynder heads out while juggling many things in her hands.

Even though Student Services is a small part of Aspen High School, it is one of the best. The students in this program are taught not only academics, but about life as well. The teamwork that was displayed truly showed what a great school will all learn in. With a great staff and eager students, Student Services reached new heights in 2007!

Out of School Activities

"Center Stage"

There are many different kinds of activities outside of school that students take part in. From ballet, skating, and dance, to traveling to Germany for basketball, our students cover a variety of interests. While these activities are not part of the general school program, students show enthusiastic support to each other when they participate in them together.

Peace, love, and ballet!
Freshman Marion Couturier and juniors Stephanie Purnell and Jessica Hite.

Winners.
Junior Shannon Dick and sophomore Julia Anderson proudly wear their medals at a figure skating competition.

Polka Dots!
Freshmen Rachel Stout, Meg Lansburgh, Nique Vetromile, Leanna Bonds, Brianna Mordkin, and Elle Crugnale shake off "butterflies" while waiting backstage to perform at a dance competition for Dance Progressions.

Tacky Tourists!
Juniors Michael Taylor, Cory Parker, Jeff Gerbaz and senior Michael Holmes finally experience the tourist life after living in a tourist town for so long. Hopefully they know how to fit in with the locals.

Ready, Set, Go!

The "Exchange Rate": From Francs to Dollars. Senior Clara Kobuch shows off her American dollars.

Taking a Break. Junior Kuba Gers takes a break from the grueling class of Chemistry to just relax.

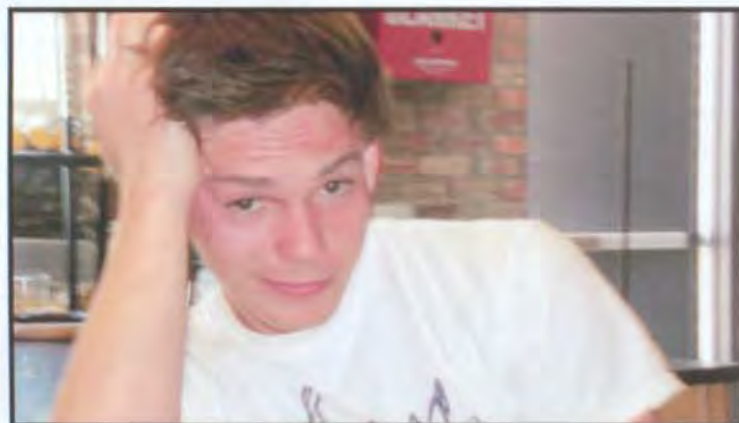

Girls Love Foreign Boys.

Freshmen M.E. Purnell and Logan Cross, and juniors Shannon Dick, Sarah Scholl, and Abby Mickey surround apparent babe-magnet junior Kuba Gers.

"Babel"

Foreign Exchange

Every year kids from other countries are given the chance by the Rotary Club to visit our school and experience Aspen's culture. From the corners of Europe, Asia and South America these exchange students are welcomed with open arms. This past year we were honored to receive Clara Kobuch from France, Boris Joseph from India, and Kuba Gers from the Czech Republic. Their cultures mixed in with ours to make AHS' even more unique. It was a great experience sharing each others' customs and cultures.

One Leg Wonder. Senior Boris Joseph spends his free time kicking a soccer ball in the Skier Dome.

-Juniors Stephanie Purnell, Sarah Scholl, Cleo Abramian, Jennie McLellan, freshman Logan Cross, and junior Jessica Hite are Marcus Lycus's "Courtesans".
-You will pay! Pseudolus (senior Andy MacCracken) shrivels with fear.
-Juniors Whitney Mufson, and Stephanie Purnell wait for their cue to go on stage.

This year, the Aspen High School Theatre Program performed "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum." This comedy was directed by Marisa Post, Marnie White, and Susan Wasienko and the cast and crew all worked especially hard to make it one of the greatest productions that Aspen High School has ever seen! Pseudolus, the leading male role, was played by Andy MacCracken, and Philia, the leading female role was played by Whitney Mufson. The whole cast exhibited great determination, which paid off, because by the end of the play the crowd was on their feet and cheering for an encore.

Why the boys think they are better...

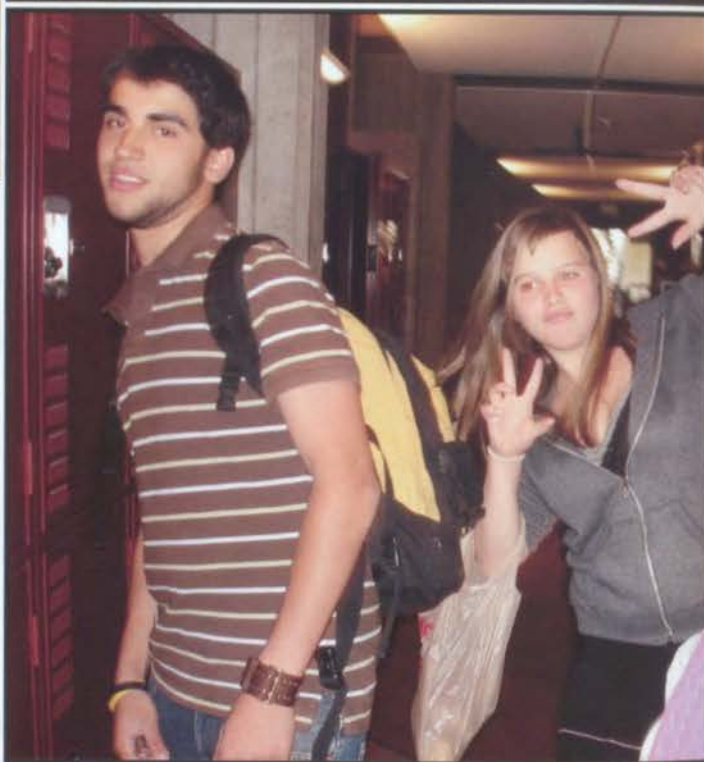

Senior Eric Sciarrone says, "Boys are better than girls because girls smell bad and they have cooties!"

Senior Boris Joseph says, "Boys and girls are equal. I think we are all cool. No one's better than anyone."

For Better or Worse.
-Sophomores Bryan Martinez and Jesus Meza prove that boys can work just as hard as girls.
- Freshman Kyle Feuer is forced by fellow freshman Gigi Weihe's incredible strength into a corner.
- Junior Mark Lamberti mimics a girl action, while freshman Sydney Sailor practices the ways of being a guy.
- Junior Taylor Crist and senior Ryan Chaloupka decide to have an arm wrestling contest.
- Sophomore Raymond Vierra and freshman Gaelen Gatzke think that girls need too much attention.

Sophomore Trevor Watson says, "We are equal...no wait guys are way better then girls because guys actually know how to play sports."

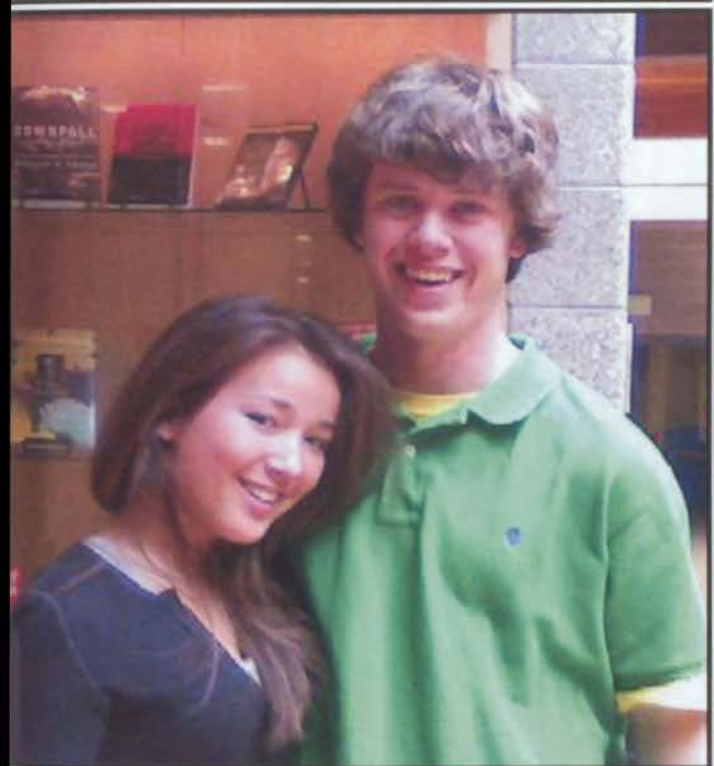

the Sexes

Why the girls think they are better...

Senior Elle Stark says, "I'm not a fighter I'm a lover."

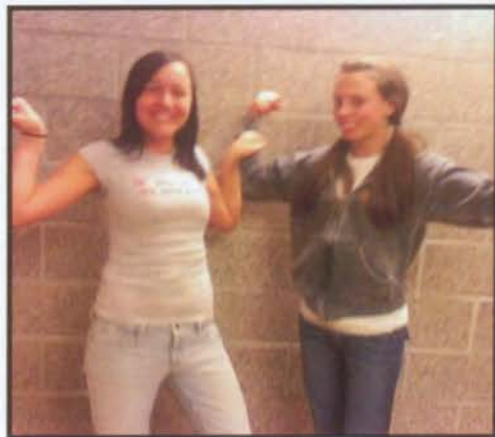

Better Than the Other?

- Freshmen Kelsey Risjord, Kelcee Corwin, and Sally Boelens show that they don't need boys to be happy.
- Seniors Zac Giammarrusco and Jenny Hearn prove that girls and boys are equal and can have a good time together.
- Taylor Fiorrela and Keaton Doyle prove to the boys that they can be just as strong.
- Freshmen Sarah King and Sierra McKinney battle each other to see who is stronger.
- Freshman Kassie Boucher and junior Reese Hankins set an example for others by getting along.

Junior Julia Hassall says, "We make better choices, boys just assume that they are better."

Freshman Amy Wang says, "Girls are better because they are studier and also, boys can be complete morons. Oh, and boys have cooties...like more cooties than anyone should ever have in a lifetime."

Looking Back

Spring 2006

The 2007 Yearbook class takes a look back at the Spring of 2006.

GIRLS' SOCCER

Spring 2006

The Girls' Soccer season started off like every other year...in the gym. Not only did the girls start and stay in the gym for more than half the season, most of the girls were also involved in numerous different club sports. The girls started off great, but when Basalt came around, "they lost their composure," said coach John Gillies. The Lady Skiers had three weeks in between the Basalt games so they work dilligently on strategy and plays. When Basalt came around again, the six seniors lead the team to a 3-1 victory. After that the girls were very up and down but finished the season in second place in the league. The girls went to the final 16 teams and played a private school, Alexander Dawson. The Lady Skiers put up a good fight but finished their season 14-1.

Dribble it up! Brittany Marrs blows past a player on the opposing team to set up a scoring opportunity.

Beating Basalt! No surprise here...The Varsity Girls celebrate another goal.

JV. First Row: Molly Wilson. Second Row: Shana Heede-Hassol, Kerri Kimmel, Shelby Burke, Olivia Davis, Shelby Butler, Brittany Marrs. Third Row: Sydney Adams, Arielle Shipe, Marissa Lindahl, Lizzy Eastley, Mia Sadowsky, Lacy Moore, Katy Evans, Coach Dave Francis.

Clear it! Steffi Klawiter sends the ball out Aspen's zone.

Top to Bottom/Left to Right:

- Elyse Boelens wins a 50-50 ball.
- The team comes together at midfield after another win.
- Lacy Moore makes a pass up the line.
- Kelly Mitchell keeps her on on the ball and her mind on the goal.
- Maggie Melberg crosses the ball into the box.
- Katy Evans gets her foot on the ball right before it bounces.
- Grace Seigle accepts a pass from a fellow Skier.

"We beat Basalt!"

- Elyse Boelens

"They don't need me in goal!"

- Carly Magill

"We are going to Ho-Palace!"

- Kelly Mitchell

"I'm kind of spastic, but it works for me."

- Nena Sivess

TRACK & FIELD

Spring 2006

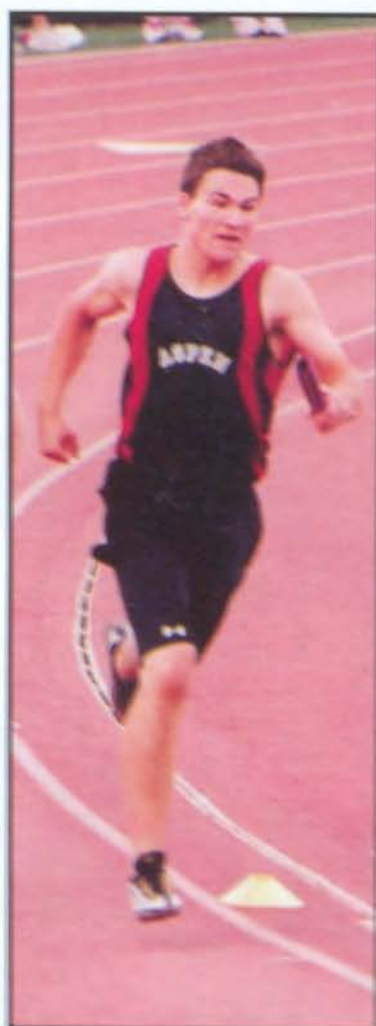

The AHS Track and Field team has always struggled with increasing its numbers, but this year's team proved that you can have strength without huge numbers. The team gained two new coaches, Tameira Wilson and Calan Gibney, who assisted the two returning coaches Jason Kruger and Head Coach Chris Keleher. The coaches and standouts like Christy Severy and Brittany Fortier led the Skiers to a victorious season that sent numerous runners to the State Championship Meet: Lindsey Wilkinson, Christy Severy, Natalie Obermeyer, Brittany Fortier, Sophie Ben-Hamoo, Barton Tofany, Whit Fuller, Adam Huber, Jake O'Connor, Jackson Davis, Nate Marrs, and Tucker Eason.

Go! Natalie Obermeyer running the 4 X 800 meter relay at State.

Kick it in! Jackson Davis sprints the final 100 meters of the 4 X 400 meter relay.

Skier Pride! In the blazing sun and heat, Christy Severy manages to run an amazing two mile race at the State Championship Meet.

Clockwise from Top Left:

- Brittany Fortier anchors the girls 4 X 800 meter relay.
- Barton Tofany shows his competitors what the 4 X 800 is all about.
- Nate Marrs stays at the front of the pack in the mile race.
- Whit Fuller makes the grueling 800 meter run look like a piece of cake.
- Sophie Ben-Hamoo, Brittany Fortier, and Coach Kruger.

"Run fast and turn left."

- Brittany Fortier

"Check the record books."

- Jackson Davis

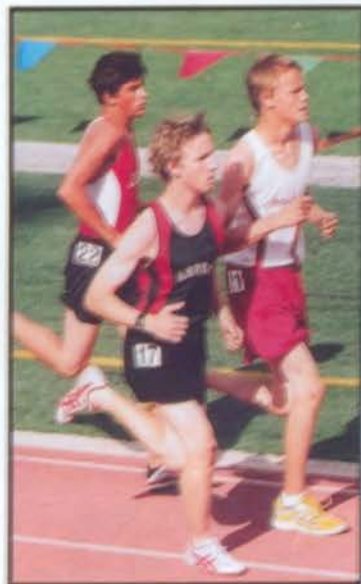

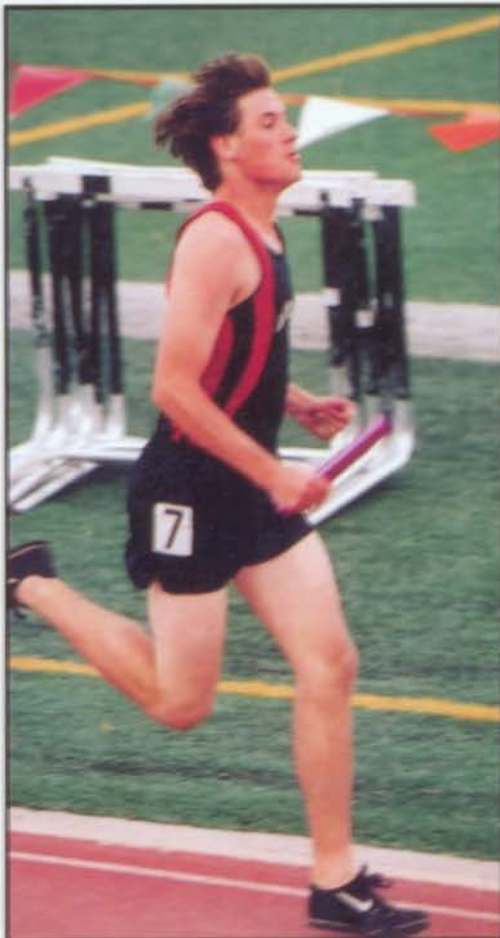

"No one asked me for a quote."

- Christy Severy

"Me Neither."

- Joe Oppenheimer

BASEBALL

Spring 2006

The AHS Baseball team had a tough task this year to rebuild and start fresh. In addition, because of our high country winter location, the boys' home away from home was the diamond at El Jebel until the snow melted off Lower Moore Field. This year's young team was led by its three returning seniors; Kevin Coulombe, Tristan Kanipe, and Collin Smith and new Head Coach Matt Lilleberg. The traditional team dinner took place at Matt Beirne's house, where, as one coach joked, "The kids needed to act like kids again." The transitional year was a struggle, but both coaches and the returning players for next year have a great feeling for the future of Aspen Baseball.

Varsity. First Row: Jeff LaGrua, Zach Maraziti, Jimmy Budwell, Nicky Anastas, Bo Weinglass. Second Row: Taylor Huske, Andy Conarro, Matt Beirne, Dillon Morehead, Max Feldman, Dylan Rayburn, Dalton Andrews. Third Row: Collin Smith, Kevin Coulombe, Tristan Kanipe, Andy MacCracken, Doug Schuster. Last Row: Head Coach Matt Lilleberg and Assistant Coach Dan Vesper

Nice rip! Nicky Anastas slaps a single through the hole between short and third.

Hum now! While a fellow Skier is up to bat, the dugout is filled with supporters.

- Andy Conarroe warms up before his first home start.
- Jeff LaGrua follows through on a wicked slider.
- Friends and family come out to support the Skier Baseball team.
- Nicky Anastas dives safely back to first base.
- Collin Smith rips a double down the line.
- Coach Vesper gives the secret sign for a bunt.

"Best feeling in life was making a certain player look like a fool."

- Kevin Coulombe

"Hey Lilleberg...I hit it first."

- Collin Smith

"We love volleyball."

- Tristan Kanipe

GIRLS' GOLF

Spring 2006

Although the Girls' Golf team had very few players, the few were mighty. Courtney Dunn, Muckie Erickson, and Ashley Fish were highly dedicated all season. They showed up to almost every practice and worked very hard. "I shot a 93!" declared Muckie Erickson with much enthusiasm. The coaches also expressed a love of the game. Assistant coach Margie Landis encouraged the golfers by telling them, "If the ball goes forward, it's a good shot." Through the rain, snow, sleet, and sun these girls always brought their 'A' game.

Muckie Erickson, Courtney Dunn, and Ashley Fish huddle up between practice putts and tee time.

GIRLS' TENNIS

Spring 2006

This tennis season was a very successful year for Aspen High School. With 10 new freshmen, the Jr. Varsity team excelled, as did the Varsity squad. The Varsity team made it to Regionals in Delta, but sadly lost and did not make it to States. Jordan Meyer, 3rd singles, got 3rd at Regionals and Hana Maclean and Annie Buettow, Varsity 4th doubles, also picked up a 3rd place at Regionals. The JV team was coached by Nancy Simpson and Fred Keesy while the Varsity team was lead by Coach Scott Dorias.

First Row: Elle Stark, Claire Haughey, Hana Maclean, Chelsey Hanle, Annie Buettow, Rachel Sher, Chessie Stokes, Kaitlin Leibowitz, Kelly Bogaert, Christina Van Moorsel, Nicole Taylor. Second Row: Whitney Mufson, Head Coach Scott Dorias, Samantha Kerr, Jordan Meyer, Robin Landis, Demetra Kayne, Rio Crandall, Caitlin Doyle, Elissa Walter, Alayne Kayne, Brooke Gordon, Blanca Salas. Not Pictured: Haylen Gregory, Julianne Davis, Haley Kaufman, and Corina Person.

Get up! Elissa Walter jumps high to return a shot from her opponent.

No zone! Jordan Meyer follows through on a strong forehand.

Volley. Annie Buettow charges the net and gracefully plays a drop shot to confuse her opponent.

The team relaxes in a very "serious" team picture before getting on the bus after a hard-fought victory.

"Toss it higher Hana!!"

Beauty and the Beast

Spring 2006

This year the cast, crew, and everyone else involved in the production of Beauty and the Beast did an absolutely fantastic job. Many people were blown away by the show and its actors. Local resident Boogie Weinglass told the cast and crew that the play was, "The best show I have ever seen done by the Aspen High School." Everyone involved put hours upon hours of their time into making it the spectacular show that the community loved so much.

Salutatorian
Kelly Bogaert

This year's graduation said goodbye to the class of 2006 in a memorable way. After four long years of high school, the seniors finally said their farewells. The teachers at Aspen High School said they could not describe this class in just one word, but Vice Principal, Brad Bates, described them as being "Kaleidascopeic - they are amazingly diverse and yet can blend together at certain times to unite as one strong class." This is a perfect representation of the personalities and characters that make up the class of 2006, and they will be hard to replace.

The senior class of 2006 throw their caps into the air in celebration of finally being done with high school. They made it through with flying colors and will go on to do great things.

Head Girl and Boy, Elyse Boelens and Rueben Sadowsky, entertain their fellow graduates one last time.

Your children are not your children.
They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself.
They come through you but not from you,
And though they are with you, yet they belong not to you.
You may give them your love but not your thoughts.
For they have their own thoughts.
You may house their bodies but not their souls,
For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit,
not even in your dream.
You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you.
For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday.
You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth.
The archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite, and He bends you with His might that His arrows may go swift and far.
Let your bending in the archer's hand be for gladness;
For even as He loves the arrow that flies, so He loves also the bow that is stable.

Stories of Neverland
And Winnie the Pooh
Walking, running,
Learning to skate
Catching, drawing,
Perfecting your traits
Looking at you
Now I can see
The boy you were
And the man you will be
Just yesterday
You learned to wink
18 years...
They go by in a blink

We Love You Kody!

May your feet follow the path that God has laid for you
And may they always find their way home

"Sometimes I feel like I'm seeing it all at once, and it's too much. My heart fills up like a balloon that's about to burst. Then I remember to relax and stop trying to hold on to it, and then it flows through me like rain, and I can't feel anything but gratitude for every single moment of my stupid little life. You have no idea what I'm talking about, I'm sure. But don't worry. You will someday.
 - Lester, American Beauty

Cynthia Whitman

And we walked off to look for America...

"In my mind, at least, either theatre changes lives or it doesn't - we are either mindless amusement with no impact, or we have profound power to shape and change attitudes, to nurture those delicate threads that bind us as a society, to plumb the depths of what it truly means to be human and to inspire us all, to recognize our role in creating a better world."
